

GARBAGE FURNACE PUZZLE YET REMAINS UNRAVELED

Board of Health Had Another Round With Vexing Problem.

SPECIAL MEETING LAST NIGHT

Lengthy Discussions Marked the Session, Which Was a Warm One.

MUST HAVE NEW FURNACE

Such Was the Decision of the Board And the Clerk Was Instructed to Advertise for Bids—Committee of Council Present.

To say that the special meeting held last night by the board of health was a fiasco, is certainly a mild attempt at an explanation of what actually took place.

Solely for the purpose of taking final action in the question of establishing a new garbage plant was the meeting called, but the matter was no nearer a solution when adjournment took place than when the session began.

After a discussion of the question in which many of the members took part, the gentlemen of the board decided that the city should have a garbage furnace. Messrs. Bullock, Horwell and Thomas, composing the committee of council appointed to confer with the board, were present, and though they did their best to assist in throwing light on the vexing problem, the gentlemen soon discovered they were "too slow" for the company they were in and allowed their able peers to worry along as they saw fit.

The discussion had progressed for about 15 minutes without result when Robert Bursner, manager of the Sanitary Reduction company, came in. Dr. Andrews immediately questioned Mr. Bursner regarding the removal of his furnace to a more suitable locality and was informed that if the board so desired, this would be done.

Mr. Nellis insisted that if Mr. Bursner's furnace was again put into commission it would have to be moved from its present location, notwithstanding that the claim was repeatedly made that it would burn garbage alone without any unnecessary stench. Mr. Haines expressed the belief that the furnace would answer for the cremation of garbage as well as any other, but Dr. Birkett took occasion to register a kick.

He complained that while the furnace was in operation the collections had not been regularly made, and on this fault his entire argument hinged. Mr. Nellis did not favor the idea of giving Mr. Bursner another chance, for the reason, he said, that the contract made with him had never been complied with. He insisted that the furnace was not the right kind needed and thought another should be built. Mayor Davidson called Mr. Nellis' attention to the fact that the furnace had never been given a trial with garbage alone and reiterated the statement made by Mr. Bursner to the effect that night soil had caused all the trouble. Mr. Nellis did not seem to consider the importance connected with the elimination of the night soil and stuck to his argument that the present plant was not what was needed.

Clerk Herbert finally produced the communications received by Health Officer Ogden from garbage furnace builders to the city. One was from A. M. Patitz, of Milwaukee, and the others from the Turney Drier company, of Louisville, and the Dixon Garbage Crematory company, of Toledo. Before any action was taken relative to the consideration of any other propositions, Dr. Andrews made a motion asking that the board allow Mr. Bursner until Monday night to draw up a contract, the same to be submitted to the board. The motion received a second, but before a vote was taken the members became side-tracked by branching off into a discussion of another question. Dr. Birkett said he thought others should be given equal rights with Mr. Bursner in making bids, and after due consideration Dr. Andrews agreed to change his motion to conform with Dr. Birkett's suggestion.

The motion, in its revised form, was to the effect that the clerk of the board be instructed to advertise for bids for the erection of a furnace and also to advertise for other bids for the disposition of both night soil and garbage. Each bid is to be made separately. Mayor Davidson had some difficulty in presenting the motion, and after it had been voted on, nobody, excepting, perhaps, Dr. Andrews, knew its exact meaning. Clerk Herbert is not sure he has it properly recorded in the book of minutes. Mayor Davidson said at the conclusion of the meeting that the motion was too much of a masterpiece for him to unravel and others of the board said likewise. At any rate it carried and the outcome remains to be conjectured.

A peculiar fact in connection with the motion is that the board of health acted without authority. Members of the board in consultation after the meeting agreed that a mistake had been made and admitted that the matter of advertising for bids should have been left to council. It is the intention, however, to turn what bids may be received over to that body, though it would appear that the health board acted hastily in going about the matter in the way it did. It is said that Mr. Bursner will not submit any proposition until council takes the deal in hand.

One very strange and remarkable oversight on the part of the board lies in the fact that as yet no resolution has ever been passed relative to the erection of a garbage plant, and it would, therefore, appear that the action taken concerning the advertising for bids is somewhat premature. It was pertinently stated last night by one of the members of the board that the meeting was a complete farce and very much on the order of a country literary entertainment.

During the progress of one of the wrangles concerning the present furnace, Mr. Nellis intimated that if it was again started at its present location an injunction would be applied for by Geo. F. Brunt, who at the present time, it is said, holds a petition with 400 signatures of residents who want the plant moved away. Mr. Bursner made known the fact that he was not the least bit afraid of an injunction, for the reason it could not be proved his plant was a nuisance with the night soil kept out. He has other reasons, it is said, for not fearing an injunction, and if one should be attempted in case he is authorized to start the furnace, a surprise will likely be sprung.

BOLD THIEVES

CARRY OFF LEAD PIPE AND OTHER MATERIAL.

Belonged to Moses Golding And Valued at About $25—Police Notified.

Another bold theft occurred last night and the police are attempting to locate the guilty parties. About 75 feet of lead pipe, together with a shut-off valve was carried away from a ditch which had been dug near the property owned by Moses Golding, opposite the new Bell telephone exchange building.

The material was left in the ditch last evening by the workmen who were making a water connection, but when they returned this morning it was discovered that the entire outfit was missing. The pipe and valve are valued at about $25.

Mr. Golding reported the theft at police headquarters this morning and it is thought the thieves will soon be arrested, as Officer Mahoney has secured sufficient information concerning the identity of the guilty ones that he has a "lead pipe clench" on tripping them up.

MASS MEETING FOR TRENTON

M. F. Tighe, Assistant Secretary of the Amalgamated Association,

TO MAKE THE ADDRESS

Officials of the Brotherhood, While Active in the Past, Will Be Even More Aggressive in the Future. Gompers to Speak Next.

If the plans now under way do not miscarry next Thursday or Friday will witness one of the most gigantic labor demonstrations in the city of Trenton.

For weeks the officials of the National Brotherhood of Operative Pottery have been arranging for the meeting, and as it will be the first of a series, a special effort is being made to get out a full attendance.

M. F. Tighe, assistant secretary of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, has been engaged to deliver an address, and all those familiar with the reputation of the gentleman as an orator, can readily comprehend that a treat is in store for the working people of the eastern pottery center.

Mr. Tighe was president of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly of Wheeling for several terms before his election to the position he now occupies in the Amalgamated Association. His record while engaged at the old "Top Mill," North Wheeling, was an excellent one. He was known throughout the entire district as a conservative, conscientious and long-headed leader of the trades unionists. Much of the success and progress which came to the toilers of Wheeling and vicinity was due to his good judgment and untiring efforts in the cause to which he has devoted his life.

Since the office of second vice president of the Brotherhood was created at the convention held in East Liverpool last July, F. E. Hutchins, the present incumbent, has been indefatigable in his efforts to carry out the work assigned to the position in the east. During the time Secretary Duffy was in Trenton many successful meetings were held, and the interest among the potters was revived to a degree which meant much to the future of the Brotherhood in that district.

President Hughes and the other national officials conceived the idea that a series of mass meetings in Trenton would be of incalculable benefit to the successful carrying out of their plans, viz: the organization of every branch of the pottery trade into the Brotherhood. With this object in view President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, was communicated with. He was asked to deliver an address in Trenton and readily consented, but to the present, no dates have been arranged, owing to the arrangements conflicting with the big man's dates. In order to begin the meetings and get the work started Mr. Tighe has kindly consented to make the first address. The meeting will not be confined to the potters, but every union organization in the New Jersey town has been asked to participate.

The mass meeting will either be held in Masonic Temple or the Y. M. C. A. hall, and promises to be a mammoth affair.

It is the intention to hold similar meetings from time to time throughout the winter, and it is thought it can be arranged for President Gompers to be present and deliver an address at the next gathering.

It is hoped by the time the crusade against the seceders and sore-heads has been finished next spring there will not be one of them left to explain how it happened.

His Eyesight Affected.

Shep. Danley, a well known barber of the city, is suffering from a peculiar affliction of the eyesight. The gentleman has consulted a number of eminent specialists, who have given him no encouragement. He will begin a treatment at once, which is very delicate, and will require several weeks to carry out.

Telephone Company's Big Job.

The Bell telephone company has a force of men at work unloading the conductors to be used in their underground system, from the cars on the Horn switch. The work of laying the underground line will be commenced in a week or ten days.

FOUND GUILTY ON ONE COUNT

John Tubbs Convicted of Shooting With Intent to Wound.

HIS WIFE ON THE STAND

Told the Story of Her Meetings With Dixon—The Accused Gives His Story of the Shooting, Which He Says Was Accidental.

Lisbon, Oct. 11.—(Special)—During the trial of John Tubbs, of Salem, yesterday afternoon, for shooting Harry Dixon with intent to kill and wound, the wife of the defendant was put on the stand. She testified that on the Friday evening preceding the shooting she received a note from Harry Dixon and that he called on her the following night; that on the next Tuesday she went to Mill Creek to meet him and remained in his company until 9 p. m.

The defendant told on the stand how he had borrowed a revolver to kill a dog which had been snapping at his children; how he met a friend and went to Garwood's saloon, called Dixon aside and thought he would frighten him into confessing intimacy with Mrs. Tubbs. Tubbs continued: "I took the revolver from my pocket and told him to own up why he had been trying to break up my home. I did not intend to shoot. As I took the gun from my pocket Dixon grabbed it and it went off."

The case went to the jury at 5 o'clock and at 8 o'clock a verdict of guilty on the second count—shooting with intent to wound—was brought in.

Tubbs' attorney made a motion for a new trial, which was overruled. He has not been sentenced and is now in jail.

The case of Marian Fantsell, administratrix of the estate of the late Ira Fantsell, against James A. Fantsell, was called in common pleas court this morning. Ira Fantsell was a dentist prior to 1885, lived and practiced in Salem. His wife is a daughter of Circuit Judge P. A. Lauble, and now lives in Cleveland. She, as her husband's administratrix, brought suit for $800, with interest from 1885 from money alleged to have been advanced to the defendant during a partnership with his brother, the plaintiff. The defendant now lives in New Orleans.

DANGEROUSLY ILL

JOHN WINTERS SUFFERING FROM HYDROPHOBIA.

Bitten By a Dog Three Weeks Ago And the Wound Has Not Yet Healed.

John Winters, commonly known as "Jack, the Ripper," is under the care of physicians at the home of George Hancock, on Second street, and said to be suffering from a genuine case of hydrophobia. His condition is critical.

About three weeks ago Winters was bitten through the lip by a bull dog owned by Homer Tyson, but as the wound was not severe, little attention was paid to it. It did not heal, however, and a few days ago while Winters was at Pittsburg, the injured lip became swollen and the wound grew painful and inflamed.

On returning here Winters consulted physicians, who informed him that he was in great danger. He has since been under their care.

UNDER DIFFICULTIES

Parties who returned from the Steubenville races yesterday give some very interesting information concerning the opposition shown to Robert L. and if it be true the horse certainly won under difficulties. It is said that an effort was made to puncture the "bike" before the race ever started and that an unsuccessful attempt was made to throw the horse. Robert L. was not the favorite, but it soon developed that the sports were afraid of him.

One peculiarity about this speedy animal is its ability to finish well. It is said by those who witnessed the race that in the three heats which were won by Robert L. he was well back in the bunch for the first three quarters and did all his good work in the final quarter. Billy Humble drove the winner.

Charles Fowler, of Danville, Ky., purchased Robert L. yesterday, price $1,000. Jockey John Splan left at once with the horse for Lexington, Ky., where he will be entered in the races next week. Next year the horse will be placed in the grand circuit.

J. T. BROOKS DEAD

WIDELY KNOWN RAILROAD MAN PASSES AWAY.

Salem, Oct. 11.—(Special)—

Joshua Twing Brooks, a widely known railroad man, died this morning after a long illness of Bright's disease.

Mr. Brooks was born in Salem in 1840, his father, Joseph J. Brooks, having been a prominent citizen here. He studied law in the office of Judge Potter, of Columbiana county, and was admitted to the bar in the sixties.

In 1862 he succeeded his father as president of the old Farmers' Bank. He took the same position when it became a national bank and held it until his death. He was elected a Republican state senator in 1865 and served two terms. In 1865 he married Miss Annie Miller, of Brownsville, Pa. In 1877 he became solicitor of the Pennsylvania company and later was associated and general counsel of the Pennsylvania lines west. In 1891 he entered the executive department of the railroad as second vice president, which position he still held.

Mr. Brooks left a large estate. He is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Emeny, Misses Judith T. and Mary A., of Salem, and one son, Charles T., a lawyer of Cleveland.

FRIENDS HELPED

POTTERY EMPLOYE WHO IS ILL GENEROUSLY AIDED.

Modesty Prevented Him Telling His Distress, But It Was Discovered And Relieved.

William Tindall, an employee of the C. C. Thompson pottery, has been very ill for the past 10 weeks. The gentleman was seized with an attack of typhoid fever, and was confined to his home on Second street for more than seven weeks. He ventured out too soon and suffered a relapse.

Tindall was too modest to inform his friends of his straightened circumstances, but it was developed by visits of friends to the home that the family was actually suffering. A number of the friends interested themselves, and it was not long until they had plenty of help. The kitchen was stocked with all that heart could wish, and by subscription some $18 or $20 was raised and placed at the disposal of the family. Mr. Tindall is now in a fair way to recovery.

HE IS INVESTIGATING

Amalgamated Association Officer Looking After the Cases of Discharged Strikers.

Lisbon, Oct. 11.—(Special)—John Chappell, of New Castle, Pa., vice president of the Amalgamated Association, is in Lisbon today to look into the cases of the four tin workers who were discharged by the American Tin Plate company, for the part they took in the late strike.

William Banfield, district manager of the tin plate company, is also here. Mr. Banfield was asked if his decision in regard to the men was final. He said:

"They have been discharged; whether or not they will be taken back I do not know."

Chappell would not say anything. He will call on Manager Banfield this afternoon and report to the association executive board.

A strike here is possible, but not probable.

Will Probated.

Lisbon, Oct. 11.—(Special)—The will of the late John Mueller, of Knox township, has been admitted to probate. B. F. Roose was appointed executor; bond $2,000.

Attended by K. of P.—The funeral of John Washington, of the West End, took place from the A. M. E. church yesterday afternoon and was attended by the colored Knights of Pythias of Steubenville, Wellsville and East Liverpool.

A Few Figures From Tax Duplicates That Are Most Interesting.

Total Worth of Columbiana County National Banks Exceeds $1,100,000.

AMBITION OF A FIRE-BUG

Curious Cause for Inceniarism Unearthed at New Philadelphia—New Church for East Liverpool—News And Gossip From the Capital.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, Oct. 11.—The state board of equalization for banks completed its labors Thursday and adjourned sine die. The board is composed of the governor, auditor of state and attorney general, and its duty is to pass upon and equalize the valuations on bank property as returned by the auditors of the several counties. The statistics given out are dry but nourishing. The valuations of the Columbiana county national banks were approved as returned by Auditor Adams. In 1900 there were 260 national banks in the state and in 1901 288. The amount of capital stock, surplus and undivided profits in 1900 was $62,128,039, which was placed on the tax duplicate at $37,688,230. This year the capital, surplus and undivided profits is returned at $66,054,171, which is placed on the tax duplicate for $40,516,604. In 1900 the number of state banks was 181, in 1901, the number is 210. The amount of capital, surplus and profits returned for taxation in 1900 was $18,558,494, which was placed on the tax duplicate at $11,042,361. For 1901, the capital, surplus and profits is returned at $23,616,833, which is placed on the tax duplicate at $13,855,883.

The total valuation of the Columbiana county national banks for this year aggregates $1,112,114, which is listed on the tax duplicate for $626,116. The valuation for the preceding year was a little less than that for this year. The value fixed on the Columbiana county banks, exclusive of real estate, as it now appears on the tax duplicate, is as follows: East Liverpool, Citizens' National, $77,356; First National, $121,988; Potters' National, $63,430; Salem, Farmers, National, $148,850; First National, $87,309; Leetonia, First National, $77,262; Wellsville, $49,930. As has been stated, these values were left as returned by Auditor Adams.

The United Brethren are about to take steps to organize a church in East Liverpool. Rev. Mr. Corl, of Navarre, Stark county, district organizer for this denomination, while in Columbus yesterday gave out this information. East Liverpool contains a number of people who believe in the teachings of the United Brethren church, and they have requested that a congregation of that denomination be formed in that city. Mr. Corl will visit other towns in Columbiana county and organize churches wherever encouragement to the movement can be found. He looks upon East Liverpool as the most promising place for a church and he will pay the city a visit very soon to investigate the field. He was unable to say whether or not in the event of the establishment of a church there that a regular pastor would be supplied, and was of the opinion that this would depend altogether on the size of the congregation.

Before going to East Liverpool Mr. Corl will organize a church at Newcomerstown. Upon the completion of his work in the pottery city he will go to Youngstown with the hope of establishing a church there. He left today to visit Otterbein university at Westerville, 13 miles northeast of this city. He has been district organizer for the United Brethren for about a year, having given up his charge at East Palestine to take up this work. Mr. Corl was severely wounded while in the service of the Union in the civil war and is well known in Grand Army circles as well as in the church of his denomination. The Newcomerstown church will start out with a membership of 50.

The case of Marian Fantsell, administratrix of the estate of the late Ira Fantsell, against James A. Fantsell, was called in common pleas court this morning. Ira Fantsell was a dentist prior to 1885, lived and practiced in Salem. His wife is a daughter of Circuit Judge P. A. Lauble, and now lives in Cleveland. She, as her husband's administratrix, brought suit for $800 with interest from 1885 from money alleged to have been advanced to the defendant during a partnership with his brother, the plaintiff. The defendant now lives in New Orleans.

DANGEROUSLY ILL

JOHN WINTERS SUFFERING FROM HYDROPHOBIA.

Bitten By a Dog Three Weeks Ago And the Wound Has Not Yet Healed.

John Winters, commonly known as "Jack, the Ripper," is under the care of physicians at the home of George Hancock, on Second street, and said to be suffering from a genuine case of hydrophobia. His condition is critical.

About three weeks ago Winters was bitten through the lip by a bull dog owned by Homer Tyson, but as the wound was not severe, little attention was paid to it. It did not heal, however, and a few days ago while Winters was at Pittsburg, the injured lip became swollen and the wound grew painful and inflamed.

On returning here Winters consulted physicians, who informed him that he was in great danger. He has since been under their care.

Parties who returned from the Steubenville races yesterday give some very interesting information concerning the opposition shown to Robert L. and if it be true the horse certainly won under difficulties. It is said that an effort was made to puncture the "bike" before the race ever started and that an unsuccessful attempt was made to throw the horse. Robert L. was not the favorite, but it soon developed that the sports were afraid of him.

One peculiarity about this speedy animal is its ability to finish well. It is said by those who witnessed the race that in the three heats which were won by Robert L. he was well back in the bunch for the first three quarters and did all his good work in the final quarter. Billy Humble drove the winner.

Charles Fowler, of Danville, Ky., purchased Robert L. yesterday, price $1,000. Jockey John Splan left at once with the horse for Lexington, Ky., where he will be entered in the races next week. Next year the horse will be placed in the grand circuit.

J. T. BROOKS DEAD

WIDELY KNOWN RAILROAD MAN PASSES AWAY.

Was One of the Best Known And Most Successful Railroad Officials.

Salem, Oct. 11.—(Special)—Joshua Twing Brooks, a widely known railroad man, died this morning after a long illness of Bright's disease.

Mr. Brooks was born in Salem in 1840, his father, Joseph J. Brooks, having been a prominent citizen here. He studied law in the office of Judge Potter, of Columbiana county, and was admitted to the bar in the sixties.

In 1862 he succeeded his father as president of the old Farmers' Bank. He took the same position when it became a national bank and held it until his death. He was elected a Republican state senator in 1865 and served two terms. In 1865 he married Miss Annie Miller, of Brownsville, Pa. In 1877 he became solicitor of the Pennsylvania company and later was associate and general counsel of the Pennsylvania lines west. In 1891 he entered the executive department of the railroad as second vice president, which position he still held.

Mr. Brooks left a large estate. He is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Emery, Misses Judith T. and Mary A., of Salem, and one son, Charles T., a lawyer of Cleveland.

FRIENDS HELPED

POTTERY EMPLOYEE WHO IS ILL GENEROUSLY AIDED.

Modesty Prevented Him Telling His Distress, But It Was Discovered And Relieved.

William Tindall, an employee of the C. C. Thompson pottery, has been very ill for the past 10 weeks. The gentleman was seized with an attack of typhoid fever, and was confined to his home on Second street for more than seven weeks. He ventured out too soon and suffered a relapse.

Tindall was too modest to inform his friends of his straightened circumstances, but it was developed by visits of friends to the home that the family was actually suffering. A number of the friends interested themselves, and it was not long until they had plenty of help. The kitchen was stocked with all that heart could wish, and by subscription some $18 or $20 was raised and placed at the disposal of the family. Mr. Tindall is now in a fair way to recovery.

Amalgamated Association Officer Looking After the Cases of Discharged Strikers.

Lisbon, Oct. 11.—(Special)—John Chappell, of New Castle, Pa., vice president of the Amalgamated Association, is in Lisbon today to look into the cases of the four tin workers who were discharged by the American Tin Plate company, for the part they took in the late strike.

William Banfield, district manager of the tin plate company, is also here. Mr. Banfield was asked if his decision in regard to the men was final. He said:

"They have been discharged; whether or not they will be taken back I do not know."

Chappell would not say anything. He will call on Manager Banfield this afternoon and report to the association executive board.

A strike here is possible, but not probable.

Will Probated.

Lisbon, Oct. 11.—(Special)—The will of the late John Mueller, of Knox township, has been admitted to probate. B. F. Roose was appointed executor; bond $2,000.

Attended by K. of P.—The funeral of John Washington, of the West End, took place from the A. M. E. church yesterday afternoon and was attended by the colored Knights of Pythias of Steubenville, Wellsville and East Liverpool.

A Few Figures From Tax Duplicates That Are Most Interesting.

Total Worth of Columbiana County National Banks Exceeds $1,100,000.

AMBITION OF A FIRE-BUG

Curious Cause for Incineration Unearthed at New Philadelphia—New Church for East Liverpool—News And Gossip From the Capital.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, Oct. 11.—The state board of equalization for banks completed its labors Thursday and adjourned sine die. The board is composed of the governor, auditor of state and attorney general, and its duty is to pass upon and equalize the valuations on bank property as returned by the auditors of the several counties. The statistics given out are dry but nourishing. The valuations of the Columbiana county national banks were approved as returned by Auditor Adams. In 1900 there were 260 national banks in the state and in 1901 288. The amount of capital stock, surplus and undivided profits in 1900 was $62,128,039, which was placed on the tax duplicate at $37,688,230. This year the capital, surplus and undivided profits is returned at $66,054,171, which is placed on the tax duplicate for $40,516,604. In 1900 the number of state banks was 181, in 1901, the number is 210. The amount of capital, surplus and profits returned for taxation in 1900 was $18,558,494, which was placed on the tax duplicate at $11,042,361. For 1901, the capital, surplus and profits is returned at $23,616,833, which is placed on the tax duplicate at $13,855,883.

The total valuation of the Columbiana county national banks for this year aggregates $1,112,114, which is listed on the tax duplicate for $626,116. The valuation for the preceding year was a little less than that for this year. The value fixed on the Columbiana county banks, exclusive of real estate, as it now appears on the tax duplicate, is as follows: East Liverpool, Citizens' National, $77,356; First National, $121,988; Potters' National, $63,430. Salem, Farmers' National, $148,850; First National, $87,300; Leontonia, First National, $77,262; Wellsville, $49,930. As has been stated, these values were left as returned by Auditor Adams.

The United Brethren are about to take steps to organize a church in East Liverpool. Rev. Mr. Corl, of Navarre, Stark county, district organizer for this denomination, while in Columbus yesterday gave out this information. East Liverpool contains a number of people who believe in the teachings of the United Brethren church, and they have requested that a congregation of that denomination be formed in that city. Mr. Corl will visit other towns in Columbiana county and organize churches wherever encouragement to the movement can be found. He looks upon East Liverpool as the most promising place for a church and he will pay the city a visit very soon to investigate the field. He was unable to say whether or not in the event of the establishment of a church there that a regular pastor would be supplied, and was of the opinion that this would depend altogether on the size of the congregation.

Before going to East Liverpool Mr. Corl will organize a church at Newcomerstown. Upon the completion of his work in the pottery city he will go to Youngstown with the hope of establishing a church there. He left today to visit Otterbein university at Westerville, 13 miles northeast of this city. He has been district organizer for the United Brethren for about a year, having given up his charge at East Palestine to take up this work. Mr. Corl was severely wounded while in the service of the Union in the civil war and is well known in Grand Army circles as well as in the church of his denomination. The Newcomerstown church will start out with a membership of 50.

Word was received here last evening that Robert Ditto, the New Philadelphia man who confessed to setting

TWO ACCIDENTS

One Due to Football Playing and Another to Unintentional Misdoin.

J. Laughlin, of Georgetown, who is employed at the Klondike, met with a painful accident yesterday. He was playing football and in some manner fell, turning his right foot under him. He was taken to the office of Dr. Mowen, but as the ankle was considerably swollen he was unable to tell whether or not it was broken. He went to his home yesterday afternoon.

William Davis, employed at the Klondike pottery, had his left arm badly cut yesterday. Two other employees of the plant were fooling, when one picked up a piece of dish and threw it at the other. It missed its mark and struck Davis, who was passing, inflicting an ugly wound. He was taken to the office of Dr. Mowen where the wound was dressed. It required three stitches to close it.

NOTES AND NOTIONS

A VARIETY OF TALES PICKED UP ABOUT TOWN.

Opinions And Observations of Interest As Noted By News Review Reporters.

Justice J. N. Rose disputes 'Squire McCarron's claim concerning the record for quick marriages. The latter justice performed the ceremony one day a few weeks ago in 20 minutes, and in that brief space of time secured the necessary license and arranged all other preliminaries. Before the last one of the 20 minutes passed away 'Squire McCarron found time to kiss the bride and claims that he yet had a few seconds to spare in which he could have planted another "gum drop" if he had desired. The presence of the groom caused his hesitancy.

According to the claim of Justice Rose, he has his contemporary distanced by five minutes. He says that he once performed a marriage ceremony in 15 minutes, and during that time secured the license and attended to all other preliminaries. The candidates in this instance were in an unusual hurry, and it was afterward learned they were elopers.

Almost out of breath the prospective groom rushed into the magistrate's office and hastily made known that he wanted to be hitched up without a moment's loss. The obliging justice rushed to the telephone and at the same time told the anxious young man to hustle his intended wife into the august presence of the court.

The young man went out and presently came back with a blushing damsel, who looked shyly at the magistrate who was just then closing the Lisbon end of the deal. This was done in a few minutes, and without the loss of a moment the ceremony proper was gone through with. By actual count, alleges the 'squire, it took him a fraction less than 15 minutes to perform the entire operation.

"Why," said he in speaking of the matter, "I had my fees pocketed and was figuring out how to spend the money long before the time had expired that it required my associate justice to do the trick. I did not kiss the bride, but I gave her a squeeze or two when her husband wasn't looking."

It is understood that 'Squire McLane is figuring on laying Rose and McCarron both in the shade.

John Herron, of this city is the possessor of a broncho which he keeps in the country near Calcutta, and as it is very wild he bet $2 Thursday that no one could catch it in two hours. Harry Caton took the bet, and proceeding to the farm in company with a crowd that wished to see the fun, he started in to catch the animal. After chasing it around the field from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., and not succeeding he chased it into a lane, blocked both ends so it could not escape, and was then compelled to lasso it. The crowd enjoyed the sport hugely.

OPERATOR HELD UP

Wheeling & Lake Erie Office at Warrenton Robbed By Two Men.

Steuensville, Oct. 11.—Information reached here last night of a bold hold-up which occurred at the Wheeling & Lake Erie station at Warrenton about 12 o'clock at night. The night operator was by himself at the time mentioned, when two unknown men entered the office and compelled him to turn over his cash on hand, as well as his watch. The amount of money secured was not stated, but it was known not to have been very much.

After securing the valuables the men beat a rapid retreat and no clue which might lead to their identity was left behind.

MUCH ROUTINE WORK.

Seemed to Be Determination to Secure Technical Corrections in the Text.

San Francisco, Oct. 11.—The triennial convention of the Episcopal church of America accomplished much routine work, but made little progress toward disposing of the canon on marriage and divorce, which came up before a committee of the whole in the house of deputies. Quibbles over words and the punctuation of sections, to which there was little opposition, took up much time.

After Technical Correctness.

There seemed to be a determination to secure technical correctness in the text. It was also noticed that many lawyers in the lay delegation were taking a keen interest in the subject. The fourth and most important section of the canon, which was adopted by the bishops, practically forbidding the marriage of divorced persons, was not reached. The two first sections and all but the last paragraph of section 3, were adopted with but one slight change, the conjunction "nor" being stricken out, thus dividing the paragraph into two complete sentences. An attempt was made to have the matter discussed behind closed doors, but the attempt failed.

That the spirit of the Huntington amendment to the constitution, permitting modified forms of worship, still lives, despite defeat, was shown by the presentation in the house of deputies of a constitutional amendment couched in almost its exact language. The principal change was the adoption of a resolution that no form of worship allowed shall be in conflict with the canons of the church. It was referred to a committee.

Rev. Winchester Donald, of Massachusetts, who presented the proposed amendment, created quite a sensation by declaring in the course of his remarks that he did not consider ordination necessary for a celebrant of holy communion.

The house of bishops devoted most of the time to consideration of the qualifications of the various candidates, who are desirous of filling the vacant missionary bishoprics of the Philippines, Porto Rico and Vieques, Hankow, North Dakota and Olympia. No names were announced, and the only action taken was a decision to vote for candidates today.

Missionary Conference Held.

A missionary conference was held last night at Trinity church, the session being devoted especially to the work in China and Japan. Addresses were delivered by the bishops of Shanghai, Kyoto and Tokio, and Rev. Dr. Turnbull Huntington, of Hankow. The church association for the advancement of the interests of labor held a largely attended meeting at the Alhambra theater last night. The principal speaker was Bishop Potter, of New York, whose subject was the relations of capital and labor, and of the citizen to the state.

The woman's auxiliary to the board of missions listened to addresses yesterday by Bishops Horner, of Asheville; Hare, of South Dakota, and General Secretary Lloyd, of the missionary board.

THE MACABEBES RETREATED.

Americans Retired to Await Reinforcements—Lieutenant Beau Was Killed.

Manila, Oct. 11.—A detachment of the Twenty-first company of Macabebes encountered a large force of insurgents near Lipa, province of Batangas. Lieutenant Beau, of the Macabebes, was killed and one of the force was wounded. The enemy was strongly entrenched. After two hours' fighting the Americans retreated to await reinforcements.

The insurgents numbered over 300, were armed with Remington and Mauser rifles, and apparently had plenty of ammunition. Martin, a teacher at Mauban, was captured by insurgents while visiting a neighboring town under an escort of native police. The next day his captors, relenting, tied him in a hammock and carried him to a point within a mile of the town and released him, saying he was a non-combatant.

The entire police force of Catagan, province of Tayabas, numbering 11, have been carried off by insurgents, armed only with bolos. Presumably the police made no resistance, though they were well armed with carbines and revolvers.

NOTES AND NOTIONS

A VARIETY OF TALES PICKED UP ABOUT TOWN.

Opinions And Observations of Interest As Noted By News Review Reporters.

Justice J. N. Rose disputes 'Squire McCarron's claim concerning the record for quick marriages. The latter justice performed the ceremony one day a few weeks ago in 20 minutes, and in that brief space of time secured the necessary license and arranged all other preliminaries. Before the last one of the 20 minutes passed away 'Squire McCarron found time to kiss the bride and claims that he yet had a few seconds to spare in which he could have planted another "gum drop" if he had desired. The presence of the groom caused his hesitancy.

According to the claim of Justice Rose, he has his contemporary distanced by five minutes. He says that he once performed a marriage ceremony in 15 minutes, and during that time secured the license and attended to all other preliminaries. The candidates in this instance were in an unusual hurry, and it was afterward learned they were elopers.

Almost out of breath the prospective groom rushed into the magistrate's office and hastily made known that he wanted to be hitched up without a moment's loss. The obliging justice rushed to the telephone and at the same time told the anxious young man to hustle his intended wife into the august presence of the court.

The young man went out and presently came back with a blushing damsel, who looked shyly at the magistrate who was just then closing the Lisbon end of the deal. This was done in a few minutes, and without the loss of a moment the ceremony proper was gone through with. By actual count, alleges the 'squire, it took him a fraction less than 15 minutes to perform the entire operation.

"Why," said he in speaking of the matter, "I had my fees pocketed and was figuring out how to spend the money long before the time had expired that it required my associate justice to do the trick. I did not kiss the bride, but I gave her a squeeze or two when her husband wasn't looking."

It is understood that 'Squire McLane is figuring on laying Rose and McCarron both in the shade.

John Herron, of this city is the possessor of a broncho which he keeps in the country near Calcutta, and as it is very wild he bet $2 Thursday that no one could catch it in two hours. Harry Caton took the bet, and proceeding to the farm in company with a crowd that wished to see the fun, he started in to catch the animal. After chasing it around the field from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., and not succeeding he chased it into a lane, blocked both ends so it could not escape, and was then compelled to lasso it. The crowd enjoyed the sport hugely.

Wheeling & Lake Erie Office at Warrenton Robbed By Two Men.

Steubenville, Oct. 11.—Information reached here last night of a bold hold-up which occurred at the Wheeling & Lake Erie station at Warrenton about 12 o'clock at night. The night operator was by himself at the time mentioned, when two unknown men entered the office and compelled him to turn over his cash on hand, as well as his watch. The amount of money secured was not stated, but it was known not to have been very much.

After securing the valuables the men beat a rapid retreat and no clue which might lead to their identity was left behind.

MUCH ROUTINE WORK.

San Francisco, Oct. 11.—The triennial convention of the Episcopal church of America accomplished much routine work, but made little progress toward disposing of the canon on marriage and divorce, which came up before a committee of the whole in the house of deputies. Quibbles over words and the punctuation of sections, to which there was little opposition, took up much time.

After Technical Correctness.

There seemed to be a determination to secure technical correctness in the text. It was also noticed that many lawyers in the lay delegation were taking a keen interest in the subject. The fourth and most important section of the canon, which was adopted by the bishops, practically forbidding the marriage of divorced persons, was not reached. The two first sections and all but the last paragraph of section 3, were adopted with but one slight change, the conjunction "nor" being stricken out, thus dividing the paragraph into two complete sentences. An attempt was made to have the matter discussed behind closed doors, but the attempt failed.

That the spirit of the Huntington amendment to the constitution, permitting modified forms of worship, still lives, despite defeat, was shown by the presentation in the house of deputies of a constitutional amendment couched in almost its exact language. The principal change was the adoption of a resolution that no form of worship allowed shall be in conflict with the canons of the church. It was referred to a committee.

Rev. Winchester Donald, of Massachusetts, who presented the proposed amendment, created quite a sensation by declaring in the course of his remarks that he did not consider ordination necessary for a celebrant of holy communion.

The house of bishops devoted most of the time to consideration of the qualifications of the various candidates, who are desirous of filling the vacant missionary bishoprics of the Philippines, Porto Rico and Vieques, Hankow, North Dakota and Olympia. No names were announced, and the only action taken was a decision to vote for candidates today.

Missionary Conference Held.

A missionary conference was held last night at Trinity church, the session being devoted especially to the work in China and Japan. Addresses were delivered by the bishops of Shanghai, Kyoto and Tokio, and Rev. Dr. Turnbull Huntington, of Hankow. The church association for the advancement of the interests of labor held a largely attended meeting at the Alhambra theater last night. The principal speaker was Bishop Potter, of New York, whose subject was the relations of capital and labor, and of the citizen to the state.

The woman's auxiliary to the board of missions listened to addresses yesterday by Bishops Horner, of Asheville; Hare, of South Dakota, and General Secretary Lloyd, of the missionary board.

THE MACABEBES RETREATED.

Americans Retired to Await Reinforcements—Lieutenant Beau Was Killed.

Manila, Oct. 11.—A detachment of the Twenty-first company of Macabebes encountered a large force of insurgents near Lipa, province of Batangas. Lieutenant Beau, of the Macabebes, was killed and one of the force was wounded. The enemy was strongly entrenched. After two hours' fighting the Americans retreated to await reinforcements.

The insurgents numbered over 300, were armed with Remington and Mauser rifles, and apparently had plenty of ammunition. Martin, a teacher at Mauban, was captured by insurgents while visiting a neighboring town under an escort of native police. The next day his captors, relenting, tied him in a hammock and carried him to a point within a mile of the town and released him, saying he was a non-combatant.

The entire police force of Catagan, province of Tayabas, numbering 11, have been carried off by insurgents, armed only with bolos. Presumably the police made no resistance, though they were well armed with carbines and revolvers.

Message Marix Says He Megaphoned Brooklyn Differs From One South-erland Says Was Megaphoned Scorpion From Eagle.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Just before the Schley court of inquiry adjourned until today, Judge Advocate Lemly introduced Lieutenant J. H. Holden, formerly watch officer on the Scorpion, as a witness. Lieutenant Holden signed the entry in the Scorpion's log, giving the particulars of the receipt of a message for Commodore Schley from the Eagle, which that vessel had brought from Captain McCalla on May 19, 1898, when the dyphoned to the Scorpion that there were only a torpedo boat and several cannoneros in that harbor. Captain Lemly told the court that the log of the Scorpion did not show the receipt of the message in this form and that he was prepared to admit that the evidence did not carry that message to Commodore Schley.

Other witnesses were Lieutenant Commander W. H. Schuetz, who served on the Iowa, and Lieutenant A. W. Grant, who was on the Massachusetts, who testified concerning the general campaign of the flying squadron. Lieutenant Edward F. Lieper concluded his testimony begun on Wednesday.

The Message to the Scorpion.

According to the testimony, addresses to the court, questioning, etc., the message which Lieutenant Commander Southerland, in command of the Eagle, testified he had megaphoned to the Scorpion on May 19, in order to intercept the Eagle, was:

"We left Cienfuegos on the night of the 16th, at which time, as we learned from an insurgent camp about 13 miles to the westward of Cienfuegos, some of the people from which were inside the town every night, that the only vessels in that harbor were a torpedo boat and nine cannoneros."

Lemly admitted the evidence did not show Schley received the message.

The log of the Scorpion, from 8 a. m. to meridian for May 19, showed that the Brooklyn had instructed the Scorpion to "speak the Eagle and obtain news and the names of vessels off Cienfuegos."

The entry then proceeds to tell of the carrying out of the order, and reports the following as being the message signalled to the Brooklyn by the Scorpion, as the result of the interview with the Eagle:

"Eagle sent by McCalla from Cienfuegos to report. Nashville following about 25 miles in rear to westward. Starboard high pressure cylinder disabled. Proceed slowly. Cincinnati and Vesuvius off Cape San Antonio, about 15 miles to northward. Flying squadron has left Cienfuegos for Key West. No news of the Spanish."

A cablegram and letter securing testimony from Marix, at Manila, were read, as was Assistant Secretary Hackett's cablegram requesting the information.

The letter which followed and which confirmed a cablegram, read: "Office of the Commander-in-Chief, U. S. Naval Forces.

"On Asiatic Station, Aug. 13, 1901.

"Remey, Manila.

"Commander Adolph Marix, U. S. Navy, deposes as follows:

Letter Giving Marix's Version.

"The message communicated by the commanding officer of the Eagle, May 19, was from McCalla to Schley to the effect that McCalla had left Cienfuegos with his ships and did not believe that Cervera's fleet had arrived there when Marblehead left. This message was communicated to Scorpion and Brooklyn by hailing.

"I do hereby swear the foregoing to be a true statement. (Signed) "A. Marix, "Commander U. S. Navy."

"Sworn and subscribed to before me this 13th day of August, 1901, on board United States flagship Brooklyn.

The testimony here was in part: Mr. Rayner presented the Scorpion's log containing the entry about the meeting with the Eagle, and Lieutenant Holden said that it was correct according to his best knowledge and belief.

Captain Lemly—I ask if you are quite positive nothing else was communicated to the vessel at this time which you may have omitted from this entry in the log book?

"I did not conduct the megaphone message."

"Did you hear it?"

"I did not hear all of it only parts of it."

"You mean you did not hear all of it as received on board the Scorpion?"

"I did not."

"Did you hear all that was communicated to the Brooklyn?"

"I did."

"Does the entry in the log embody all that was communicated to the Brooklyn?"

"To the best of my knowledge and belief, it does."

"Who did receive the message?"

"The commanding officer, Lieutenant Commander Marix."

"Was there difficulty in receiving it as far as you know on account of the distance?"

"There was considerable difficulty in receiving it on account of the distance between the ships and the wind, which was blowing from us towards the Eagle. The commanding officer had the megaphone and in receiving the message held it up to his ear, and was thus able to hear more than other people on the bridge at the time."

Mr. Rayner—How far was the Eagle from the Scorpion when she megaphoned?

"The distance varied. I should say the distance ranged between 100 and 200 yards."

In answer to questions, he did not recollect any collision being imminent, which Southerland had testified to.

In the Stock Market, Thursday, was Notable—Closing Active and Strong.

New York, Oct. 11.—There was a notable revival of speculation in the stock market Thursday, following the wavering and hesitating movement of the last day or two. Pretty much every department of the market became affected in an increasing degree, and in the late dealings the market became fairly buoyant and closed active and strong at about the top level.

The trans-continental stock, which had been somewhat neglected in the early strength, leaped into activity and strength. Great Northern preferred jumped 8 points to 196 3/4; Northern Pacific preferred and Chicago and Northwestern 3, St. Paul 2 3/4 and Union Pacific 2 1/4. There was a renewed heavy demand for the Erie stocks also, which lifted them 1 1/4 to 4 points. This culmination of the day's bullish tendency caused a rush to cover by the bears. The demand from this source showed a state bordering on demoralization on the part of the large short interest in the market. The majority of active stocks are a point or more higher. The coalers showed the first marked evidence of strength, New Jersey Central jumping 7 points and others of the group 1 to 4. Amalgamated Copper and Sugar were very active and strong at advances of about 3 points each, the short interest playing an important part in their movement.

United States new 4s advanced 1/2 per cent on the last call.

It is not generally known, however, that this remedy has proved very successful in the treatment of Asiatic Cholera and is now sold and used all over India. Mrs. Sd. L. Hiscocks writing from Claer Road, Byculla, India, says: "I have used a good many bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have found it invaluable as a cure as well as a preventive of cholera. So far I have never known it to fail if given in the early stages." For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, druggist.

DEMOCRATIC REVOLT.

Summit County Convention Makes a Kick.

Stigmatizes the "Men Who Deserted Their Colors"—Which Means Kilbourne and His Friends.

Why should not the present Democratic organization of Ohio call upon the Summit county Democrats for names and addresses in full specification of the "men who deserted their colors in the hour of their party's sorest need, and whose opposition to their ticket is responsible for our defeat in 1896?" The resolutions, "enthusiastically adopted" at Akron, "refuse to recognize as entitled to the control of the Democratic organization men who" did things described, and declare that such men "should not ask for, or be entrusted with, party leadership as a reward for their disloyalty, while still unrepentant." It would be mighty interesting to know just what Democratic brethren are meant by the "other Democratic brethren." There is a plain implication that the present managers of the party are more or less tainted with suspicion in this respect, and there are not lacking readers of this vigorous English who see in it a strong intimation that the Democratic candidate for governor is one of them, too.

Certainly the really sincere Bryan silver Democrats have reason to feel that their "peerless leader" and the cause that twice made him their party's candidate for president, were dumped by the Ohio Democratic state convention with malice aforethought, one might say. These men, who are the genuine silver Democracy, stand by their principles and are not to be turned aside by a slight change in the control of the party machinery, that puts in power some of the elements that helped to defeat Bryan in 1896 and again in 1900. Hence the Summit county Democrats "enthusiastically adopted" the first plank of their platform as follows:

"We ratify and endorse the Kansas City platform of 1900, and every part of it; and we pledge our votes and our efforts to secure the triumph of the principles therein enunciated, believing that thus, and thus only, can the lasting and equal welfare of the people be subserved."

In order that there may be no misunderstanding of their position, they followed this up by the second plank, that rules out every other leader in the party, as if not one of them was to be trusted to carry the flag of free silver; and the following was also "enthusiastically adopted":

"We have an abiding belief in the patriotism, unselfishness, common sense and great qualities of leadership of William J. Bryan, and still confidently look to him as the vindicator of popular rights."

How can these conflicting elements, irreconcilable as they have proved themselves to be, keep together for the campaign? Will the two wings ever flap at once?

Half a million dollars daily is the increase of the surplus in the treasury. It was never thus in Democratic days.

Among the 76,000,000 people in the United States, not a word is spoken against President McKinley except by anarchists.

"Sworn and subscribed to before me this 13th day of August, 1901, on board United States flagship Brooklyn."

The testimony here was in part: Mr. Rayner presented the Scorpion's log containing the entry about the meeting with the Eagle, and Lieutenant Holden said that it was correct according to his best knowledge and belief.

Captain Lemly—I ask if you are quite positive nothing else was communicated to the vessel at this time which you may have omitted from this entry in the log book?

"I did not conduct the megaphone message."

"Did you hear it?"

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

"you mean you did not hear all of it as received on board the Scorpion?"

"I did not."

"Did you hear all that was communicated to the Brooklyn?"

"I did."

"Does the entry in the log embody all that was communicated to the Brooklyn?"

"To the best of my knowledge and belief, it does."

"Who did receive the message?"

"The commanding officer, Lieutenant Commander Marix."

"Was there difficulty in receiving it as far as you know on account of the distance?"

"There was considerable difficulty in receiving it on account of the distance between the ships and the wind, which was blowing from us towards the Eagle. The commanding officer had the megaphone and in receiving the message held it up to his ear, and was thus able to hear more than other people on the bridge at the time."

Mr. Rayner—How far was the Eagle from the Scorpion when she megaphoned?

"The distance varied. I should say the distance ranged between 100 and 200 yards."

In answer to questions, he did not recollect any collision being imminent, which Southerland had testified to.

In the Stock Market, Thursday, was Notable—Closing Active and Strong.

New York, Oct. 11.—There was a notable revival of speculation in the stock market Thursday, following the wavering and hesitating movement of the last day or two. Pretty much every department of the market became affected in an increasing degree, and in the late dealings the market became fairly buoyant and closed active and strong at about the top level.

The trans-continental stock, which had been somewhat neglected in the early strength, leaped into activity and strength. Great Northern preferred jumped 8 points to 196 3/4; Northern Pacific preferred and Chicago and Northwestern 3, St. Paul 2 3/4 and Union Pacific 2 1/4. There was a renewed heavy demand for the Erie stocks also, which lifted them 1 1/4 to 4 points. This culmination of the day's bullish tendency caused a rush to cover by the bears. The demand from this source showed a state bordering on demoralization on the part of the large short interest in the market. The majority of active stocks are a point or more higher. The coals showed the first marked evidence of strength. New Jersey Central jumping 7 points and others of the group 1 to 4. Amalgamated Copper and Sugar were very active and strong at advances of about 3 points each, the short interest playing an important part in their movement.

Cholera in India.

People everywhere are acquainted with the remarkable cures of milder forms of bowel complaints effected by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is not generally known, however, that this remedy has proved very successful in the treatment of Asiatic Cholera and is now sold and used all over India. Mrs. S. L. Hiscocks writing from Clae Road, Byculla, India, says: "I have used a good many bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have found it invaluable as a cure as well as a preventive of cholera. So far I have never known it to fail if given in the early stages." For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, druggist.

A. G. Hass, teacher of the Moultrie school, has resigned and accepted a position in the Alliance schools.

Robert Anderson, James M. Beer and John Miller, all respected citizens of Homeworth, passed away recently within 10 days.

Monroe county has a renewal of oil excitement on account of the Kestner well, near Lewisville, reported doing 400 barrels a day.

Miss Mabel English, of Rogers, left last week to assume her duties as teacher in an educational institution near New Orleans.

Mrs. John Starkey and daughter, of Irondale, while walking, saw a large copperhead snake. Instead of running from it, they killed it.

Rev. Dr. R. A. McKinley, of Steubenville, a cousin of the late President McKinley, has been elected moderator of the State Presbyterian synod.

Mrs. Margaret Hunter, of Salineville, tripped and fell while crossing the floor of her room and broke a leg. Her advanced age, 83 years, renders her recovery improbable.

Plans and specifications for the new sewer pipe building at Irondale have been drawn. The building will be three stories high, the main building being 90x285, with an annex 60x75.

Malignant scarlet fever has obtained a foothold at Toronto and there have been a number of deaths. All cases are quarantined. At New Somerset there are a number of cases of typhoid fever.

The voters of Youngstown will be called upon to vote on a new city hall proposition at the fall election. Although the city has 50,000 inhabitants it has never had a city hall. The hall will cost $150,000.

DEMOCRATIC REVOLT.

Summit County Convention Makes a Kick.

Stigmatizes the "Men Who Deserted Their Colors"—Which Means Kilbourne and His Friends.

Why should not the present Democratic organization of Ohio call upon the Summit county Democrats for names and addresses in full specification of the "men who deserted their colors in the hour of their party's sorest need, and whose opposition to their ticket is responsible for our defeat in 1896?" The resolutions, "enthusiastically adopted" at Akron, "refuse to recognize as entitled to the control of the Democratic organization men who" did things described, and declare that such men "should not ask for, or be entrusted with, party leadership as a reward for their disloyalty, while still unrepentant." It would be mighty interesting to know just what Democratic brethren are meant by the "other Democratic brethren." There is a plain implication that the present managers of the party are more or less tainted with suspicion in this respect, and there are not lacking readers of this vigorous English who see in it a strong intimation that the Democratic candidate for governor is one of them, too. Certainly the really sincere Bryan silver Democrats have reason to feel that their "peerless leader" and the cause that twice made him their party's candidate for president, were dumped by the Ohio Democratic state convention with malice aforethought, one might say. These men, who are the genuine silver Democracy, stand by their principles and are not to be turned aside by a slight change in the control of the party machinery, that puts in power some of the elements that helped to defeat Bryan in 1896 and again in 1900. Hence the Summit county Democrats "enthusiastically adopted" the first plank of their platform as follows:

"We ratify and endorse the Kansas City platform of 1900, and every part of it; and we pledge our votes and our efforts to secure the triumph of the principles therein enunciated, believing that thus, and thus only, can the lasting and equal welfare of the people be subserved."

In order that there may be no misunderstanding of their position, they followed this up by the second plank, that rules out every other leader in the party, as if not one of them was to be trusted to carry the flag of free silver; and the following was also "enthusiastically adopted":

"We have an abiding belief in the patriotism, unselfishness, common sense and great qualities of leadership of William J. Bryan, and still confidently look to him as the vindicator of popular rights."

How can these conflicting elements, irreconcilable as they have proved themselves to be, keep together for the campaign? Will the two wings ever flap at once?

Half a million dollars daily is the increase of the surplus in the treasury. It was never thus in Democratic days.

Among the 76,000,000 people in the United States, not a word is spoken against President McKinley except by anarchists.

The campaign address of General
D. B. Henderson, speaker of the national house of representatives, made at Manchester, Ia., is one that will attract much attention, both from the nature of the topics treated and from
the position occupied by the orator.
Speaker Henderson, like most of the statesmen who have spoken on the subject, regards the provision for beginning work on the isthmian canal
as one of the most important matters
to come before congress at the coming session. Another matter of great moment is the problem of providing encouragement for American shipping interests. Referring to the fact that certain Democratic state platforms
still endorse the Kansas City free
silver platform, the speaker says it seems to him like procuring medicine
for a person dead and buried and well
advanced in decay. The free silver prophecies have all proven false, and
every intelligent man in America
blesses the wisdom of the Republican
legislation which has made every dollar in the United States as good as gold. The speaker is more firmly
than ever convinced of the benefits of the policy of protection. Indeed, it seems impossible that any fair-minded
observer, looking upon the abundant
examples of prosperity solely due to
that cause, can question the assertion
that no one policy has done as much
for the development of the country
and for the elevation of American labor. The present administration is bravely committed to the policies of the past one, and with a president of fearless honesty and of proven patriotism, the outlook for future material
prosperity and national advancement
could not be more encouraging.

It begins to look as if East Liverpool would wait indefinitely for the settlement of the garbage problem if
it is to wait on the board of health.
That body, in its efforts to hasten a solution, seems to have gone so fast
as to overlook the formalities of the
law, the observance of which council
will probably insist upon, ere the proposed $12,000 garbage furnace is erected. The result is more confusion and delay in a case where immediate action is essential.

The granger who thinks he can beat
strangers at their own game has been taken in again, this time in Summit
county. His experience was somewhat costly, but if he looks for sympathy he will look in vain. There is no excuse for any man who can read being victimized by a scheme that has
been exposed over and over.

The coming legislature will be called upon to redistrict the state. Should
there be a Democratic majority, a Democratic gerrymander of congressional districts would be inevitable.

Give them no chance to cut down the Republican majority in congress.

Sensible Cubans, seeing the impossibility of forming a better government than already exists in the United States, are willing to forego the trouble of experimenting and come into
the union forthwith. It is a sentiment
that is certain to grow.

Under Tax Reformer Tom Johnson's
administration of the city government,
Cleveland taxpayers find that $840,000
has been added to their taxes in a year. Democratic reform administrations come high, but there are those who will have them.

Canadian yachtsmen think they can
capture the American cup if the Englishmen cannot. They are foemen
worthy of our steel, and should be accommodated, if they really desire to enter a contest.

A French anarchist has been sent
to prison for a year for counseling assassination. There are still some things that they do better in Europe
than in America.

A surplus is generally regarded by individuals as desirable, but when a Democratic editor sees one growing in Uncle Sam's treasury it almost throws
him into fits.

AT THE THEATER

The Carner Stock company will begin a week's engagement at the new
Grand opera house Monday evening,
Oct. 14, presenting the sensational
drama, "The Black Flag."

Speaking of the Carner company,
the South Bend (Ind.) Daily Tribune,
of September 24, 1901, says: "The Carner stock company opened a week's engagement at the Auditorium last
night, presenting the sensational drama, "The Black Flag." The play was well staged and the characters properly portrayed by the different members of the cast. The specialties introduced by Lulu May, Kathryn Evans, the Misses LeBlanc, Webb and Wilmot,
John Mylie and Harry Hooper were
good. "The cinematograph is the best
pictures presented were loudly applauded."

"Papa's Baby," the new musical
comedy produced this season by Manager Fred E. Wright, and which will be seen for the first time at the Grand
on Saturday night, may be said to differ from many recent productions of this type in that it possesses more intrinsic value as a farce. It is said not to depend so entirely upon its interpreters for its success as a mirth-provoker; it is sufficiently funny in itself. The series follow so closely
one upon another, that the play is worthy of rank as a classic in farce.

Her Mother Very Ill—Mrs. Al Hayes, of Third street, left this morning for Trenton, having received word that her mother, Mrs. Peabody, was at the point of death.

BOY ADVENTURERS

Who Started From Ohio to Hunt
Indians Overtaken in Tennessee.

Wesley and Leon Rowland, the boy
brothers who ran away from their home at Marietta about two weeks
ago, a description of whom was received by Chief Thompson, were captured Wednesday in Memphis, Tenn.
A shot gun, ammunition, an ax and
a big bundle of dime novels were found in their possession. At police headquarters the youngsters handed over their effects. Leon, the older
one, boldly stated they had run away from home and claimed they had a large sum of money buried on the outskirts of Memphis.

In answer to a question asked as
to their reason for leaving home, Leon
said they were in search of adventure
and intended to work their way west
to have a tilt with the painted warriors of the plains. The lads will be sent home.

Running an Ocean Liner by Hand.

In the problem of the application of
 motive power to transportation as a form of production in the sense that it
increases the value or utility of a product, the significance of the development
of motive power transcends almost
any other consideration, says The Engineering Magazine. A somewhat impressive example can be derived from
the rough calculation of the meaning
that would attach to a transatlantic
liner with a 24,000 horsepower engine
were that engine to be replaced by 20,
000 horsepower of human muscle.

Te run night and day there would have to be three relays of men at the treadmill or other appliance which would be used. Each eight hour shift
at each 10,000 horsepower engine would
be 20,000 men, or 200,000 for the two engines. Three shifts of 200,000 men
would give below decks a population
of a city of second grade. If the problem, moreover, were put in the form of a high speed transportation, such as is represented by the locomotive equipment, it disappears practically in the field of the unthinkable.

It needs, therefore, but a moment's
consideration of the widespread significance which the railroad bears to
the modern economic method to bring
out the debt which the modern community owes to the motive power
problem.

The campaign address of General
 D. B. Henderson, speaker of the national house of representatives, made
 at Manchester, Ia., is one that will attract much attention, both from the nature of the topics treated and from
 the position occupied by the orator.
 Speaker Henderson, like most of the
 statesmen who have spoken on the
 subject, regards the provision for beginning work on the isthmian canal
 as one of the most important matters
 to come before congress at the coming
 session. Another matter of great moment is the problem of providing encouragement for American shipping
 interests. Referring to the fact that
 certain Democratic state platforms
 still endorse the Kansas City free
 silver platform, the speaker says it
 seems to him like procuring medicine
 for a person dead and buried and well
 advanced in decay. The free silver
 prophecies have all proven false, and
 every intelligent man in America
 blesses the wisdom of the Republican
 legislation which has made every dollar in the United States as good as
 than ever convinced of the benefits of
 the policy of protection. Indeed, it
 seems impossible that any fair-minded
 observer, looking upon the abundant
 examples of prosperity solely due to
 that cause, can question the assertion
 that no one policy has done as much
 for the development of the country
 and for the elevation of American labor. The present administration is bravely committed to the policies of
 the past one, and with a president of
 fearless honesty and of proven patriotism, the outlook for future material
 prosperity and national advancement
 could not be more encouraging.

 pool would wait indefinitely for the settlement of the garbage problem if
 it is to wait on the board of health.
 That body, in its efforts to hasten a
 solution, seems to have gone so fast
 as to overlook the formalities of the
 law, the observance of which council
 will probably insist upon, ere the proposed $12,000 garbage furnace is erect-
 ed. The result is more confusion and
 delay in a case where immediate action is essential.

 strangers at their own game has been
 taken in again, this time in Summit
 county. His experience was somewhat costly, but if he looks for sympathy he will look in vain. There is no
 excuse for any man who can read being victimized by a scheme that has
 been exposed over and over.

The coming legislature will be called upon to redistrict the state. Should
 there be a Democratic majority, a Democratic gerrymander of congressional districts would be inevitable.

 Give them no chance to cut down the Republican majority in congress.

Sensible Cubans, seeing the impos-
 sibility of forming a better government than already exists in the United States, are willing to forego the trouble of experimenting and come into
 the union forthwith. It is a sentiment

Under Tax Reformer Tom Johnson's
 administration of the city government,
 Cleveland taxpayers find that $840,000
 has been added to their taxes in a
 year. Democratic reform administrations come high, but there are those
 who will have them.

Canadian yachtsmen think they can
 capture the American cup if the Englishmen cannot. They are foemen
 worthy of our steel, and should be accommodated, if they really desire to enter a contest.

A French anarchist has been sent
 to prison for a year for counseling assassination. There are still some things that they do better in Europe
 than in America.

A surplus is generally regarded by
 individuals as desirable, but when a Democratic editor sees one growing in Uncle Sam's treasury it almost throws
 him into fits.

AT THE THEATER

The Carner Stock company will begin a week's engagement at the new
 Grand opera house Monday evening,
 Oct. 14, presenting the sensational
 drama, "The Black Flag."
 Speaking of the Carner company,
 the South Bend (Ind.) Daily Tribune,
 of September 24, 1901, says: "The Carner stock company opened a week's engagement at the Auditorium last
 night, presenting the sensational drama, "The Black Flag." The play was
 well staged and the characters properly portrayed by the different members of the cast. The specialties introduced by Lulu May, Kathryn Evans, the Misses LeBlanc, Webb and Wilnot, John Mylie and Harry Hooper were
 pictures presented were loudly ap-
 plauded."

"Papa's Baby," the new musical
 comedy produced this season by Man-
 on Saturday night, may be said to differ from many recent productions of
 this type in that it possesses more intrinsic value as a farce. It is said not to depend so entirely upon its interpreters for its success as a mirth-provoker; it is sufficiently funny in itself. The series follow so closely
 one upon another, that the play is worthy of rank as a classic in farce.

BOY ADVENTURERS

 Indians Overtaken in Tennessee.

Wesley and Leon Rowland, the boy
 brothers who ran away from their
 home at Marietta about two weeks
 ago, a description of whom was re-
 tured Wednesday in Memphis, Tenn.
 A shot gun, ammunition, an ax and
 a big bundle of dime novels were
 found in their possession. At police
 headquarters the youngsters handed
 over their effects. Leon, the older
 one, boldly stated they had run away
 from home and claimed they had a large sum of money buried on the outskirts of Memphis.

 to their reason for leaving home, Leon
 said they were in search of adventure
 and intended to work their way west
 to have a tilt with the painted warriors of the plains. The lads will be sent home.

Running an Ocean Liner by Hand.

In the problem of the application of
 motive power to transportation as a
 form of production in the sense that it
 increases the value or utility of a product, the significance of the development
 of motive power transcends almost
 any other consideration, says The Engineering Magazine. A somewhat impressive example can be derived from
 that would attach to a transatlantic
 liner with a 24,000 horsepower engine
 were that engine to be replaced by 20,
 000 horsepower of human muscle.

To run night and day there would have to be three relays of men at the
 treadmill or other appliance which
 would be used. Each eight hour shift
 be 20,000 men, or 200,000 for the two engines. Three shifts of 200,000 men
 would give below decks a population
 of a city of second grade. If the problem, moreover, were put in the form of
 a high speed transportation, such as is represented by the locomotive condition, it disappears practically in the field of the unthinkable.

It needs, therefore, but a moment's
 consideration of the widespread significance which the railroad bears to
 the modern economic method to bring
 out the debt which the modern community owes to the motive power
 problem.

WELLSVILLE

FOR FIFTEEN YEARS

STREET RAILWAY AGREES TO ACCEPT AMENDED FRANCHISE.

This And Other Matters Before the City Council of Wellsville.

Judge P. M. Smith appeared before the council at its adjourned meeting last night and stated that the East Liverpool Railway company would agree to accept a franchise for 15 years for an extension of its line to the West End brick yard without reference to the present franchise.

Mr. Turner said he would agree if company would agree to pave Third street, Lisbon and Liverpool streets as far as the culvert over Wells' run, meaning, of course, between the rails. As a compromise this was agreed upon. Steiner and Aughinbaugh only voting against it. The railway company has not yet agreed to accept the terms in full, but it is understood it will.

Geo. B. Aten, J. C. Catlett and A. S. Rogers were appointed commissioners to make assessments on property receiving benefits by reason of new paving, etc.

The electric light bill, hung up at last meeting, was allowed in the sum of $371.19.

The city solicitor was instructed to inquire into and determine whether or not the light company had violated its contract in not furnishing proper lights.

A resolution to pave Kelly avenue was passed with no dissenting votes.

The letting of contracts for paving was changed, to begin November 6 and at different days thereafter, in accordance with the condition of finances in the treasury.

SOUTH SIDE

TELEPHONE FRANCHISE

GRANTED BY THE TOWN COUNCIL OF CHESTER.

Policeman May Be Dropped—Discussion of Bridge Gas Line.

Chester council met last night and gave the franchise of the Columbiana County company another reading. This time it was passed, but council had added onto it that the town was to have two free phones at present, and as the town grows and requires them the company will place in more.

The piece of cell which has been the cause of delaying the work of erecting the cells is expected to arrive in a few days, the recorder having received the bill of lading.

The insurance for the town building was accepted, the amount being $500.

The question whether the services of E. S. Goode as policeman were needed was discussed. Mr. Riley, president of the police committee, stated that he thought it was unnecessary to employ Mr. Goode at present, but in case his services were needed it was a case of after consideration, and in all probability he will be laid off.

A motion was made by Mr. Cochran to have the Ohio Valley Gas company place its line under the Second street bridge instead of on the bridge. Mr. Riley seconded the motion and Mr. Cochran was notified to inform the company to place the line under the bridge.

It has already connected the line over it, but as the ordinance calls for the line to be under cover, it is thought council will have no difficulty in getting the line placed as desired.

The grades of the engineer, which were viewed by council last Monday afternoon, were satisfactory and accepted.

JOSEPH BROS.

THE OHIO CAMPAIGN.

Its Importance to the Republicans of the Nation.

OHIO'S VOICE IS WAITED FOR.

Why It Is Necessary to Republican Prosperity That the General Assembly Shall Be Carried.

The only possible hope of Democratic success in Ohio this fall is in the inattention or defection of Republican voters. If fifty thousand of them should neglect to go to the polls, or half that number vote the Democratic ticket, success to that party would be possible. As neither of these things is to be expected, there is no hope whatever in the minds of the Democratic managers that they will be able to elect their state ticket.

All the real work that is being done is therefore devoted to the candidates for the general assembly. A majority in that body this winter is a prize worth striving for. It means a United States senatorship, and a redistricting of the state for congressional purposes. Under a gerrymander such as they perpetrated the last time they were in power, Ohio would for the next ten years be misrepresented in the lower branch of congress by more Democratic members than the party vote really entitles them.

This being the case it behooves every Republican to be wide awake. He should make it a point not only to go to the polls himself on November 5, but to see to it that all his Republican friends and neighbors do likewise. The general assembly of the state must contain a Republican majority. Ohio would disgrace herself in the eyes of her sister states did she allow the peerless Foraker to be retired from the senate, and thus lose to the country his broad statesmanship and wise counsel. It is absolutely necessary that Ohio shall retain her present Republican delegation in the house of representatives, because there is a possibility three years hence of a failure of the electors to choose a president, in which case that body would have the task of choosing one.

The country is in all ways prosperous. The people are making money. No man who really desires it, need go without employment, and that, too, at good wages. Should Ohio this fall elect a Democratic legislature, or reduce materially her normal Republican plurality, that fact would be interpreted all over the Union as indicative of dissatisfaction with the policies inaugurated by McKinley, and of distrust of President Roosevelt. Think this over, Republican voters of Ohio, and do not allow your selves to be misled by the Democratic gabble on taxation and other trumped-up issues on which the Democrats of the state are endeavoring to make a campaign.

There is, in fact, no issue whatever on taxation. Republican legislatures within the past few years have increased the state's revenue fully one third without increasing taxation on real or personal property. This has been done by the enactment of laws which tax corporations in various ways, despite the awkward fact that the state constitution, adopted in 1852, does not allow the taxation of franchises. Then, too, the Republicans of the state stand committed by their platform to further legislation to the end that the burden of taxation upon property may be lessened. Tom Johnson's cry is that the railroads do not pay their proper share of the taxes.

The Republican general assembly next winter will give its attention to this matter, and provide methods whereby they shall bear their just burden if they are not already doing so. At present the fault, if there be any, lies with the auditors of the counties through which the lines run. These officials meet and make up the valuation for every road in each county. If that valuation is too low, the fault is theirs. A number of these gentlemen are Democrats, of course, but no one has yet brought forward any Democratic auditor who has insisted that any railway was not bearing its proper share of taxes. The whole cry is a manufactured one, intended to deceive the voters.

THE IMPERATIVE DUTY.

The campaign in Ohio this fall will be the shortest in the history of the state. It is fortunate that there are no new issues to be discussed when the period for the enlightenment of the voters is so necessarily curtailed. To those who believe in the maintenance of the national honor and of the prosperity of the country there can be no question as to their duty in the unexpected crisis which has been forced upon the country. It is imperative that Ohio's voice must sound out clear and sharply the declaration that President Roosevelt is to be supported in his determination to maintain the policies which Mr. McKinley had a great share in inaugurating. It must not be recorded in history that Ohio, the state of the illustrious dead, the first state to vote under the new administration, returned an adverse verdict. More than before, have recent events forced the necessity for a reaffirmation of last year's national verdict at the polls in November.

When Tom Johnson rises to speak on the subject of taxation Republicans should prod him with questions relative to the amount of tax he pays on his large holdings of property.

WELLSVILLE

STREET RAILWAY AGREES TO ACCEPT AMENDED FRANCHISE.

This And Other Matters Before the City Council of Wellsville.

Judge P. M. Smith appeared before the council at its adjourned meeting last night and stated that the East Liverpool Railway company would agree to accept a franchise for 15 years for an extension of its line to the West End brick yard without reference to the present franchise.

Mr. Turner said he would agree if company would agree to pave Third street, Lisbon and Liverpool streets as far as the culvert over Wells' run, meaning, of course, between the rails. As a compromise this was agreed upon. Steiner and Aughinbaugh only voting against it. The railway company has not yet agreed to accept the terms in full, but it is understood it will.

Geo. B. Aten, J. C. Catlett and A. S. Rogers were appointed commissioners to make assessments on property receiving benefits by reason of new paving, etc.

The electric light bill, hung up at last meeting, was allowed in the sum of $371.19.

The city solicitor was instructed to inquire into and determine whether or not the light company had violated its contract in not furnishing proper lights.

A resolution to pave Kelly avenue was passed with no dissenting votes.

The letting of contracts for paving was changed, to begin November 6 and at different days thereafter, in accordance with the condition of finances in the treasury.

WEALTH THAT IS STORED

fire to five buildings in that town, was on Saturday given a sentence of 10 years in the penitentiary. Ditto was moved to incendiaryism by peculiar motives. He was a member of the fire department and cherished a desire to be chief. He would start a fire in some obscure spot, hasten to the nearest box and turn in the alarm. He would then rush to the scene of the blaze and work heroically to extinguish the flames and in this way hoped to obtain credit which would lead to a realization of his all-consuming ambition.

The frequency of the fires and the fact that most of them were discovered by Ditto aroused the suspicions of the people and led to the man's arrest. The stiff sentence imposed will probably have a wholesome effect and curb those with incendiary tendencies. George S. Krammes was also convicted of a similar charge at the same time and place, but sentence in his case will be reserved pending the outcome of the trial of George Callahan, who has also been implicated in an arson case. New Philadelphia has been well-nigh terrorized by fire bugs during the past six months, but the state fire marshal believe he has the practice broken up.

The state railway board of equalization did not make any change in the values of railroads in Columbiana county. There really was not much alteration of any of the roads. The Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling was reduced $96,150 and the New York, Chicago and St. Louis increased $1,000 per mile. A few other changes were made. The board could not see its way clear to add to the total aggregate of values, as demanded by Tom Johnson, as the law does not invest them with this power. He made a great ado about a decision of the late Judge Bradbury, of the supreme court, which might seem to a casual observer to show the board could, if it saw fit, increase the total valuation.

The case was not one in point. The decision had to do with a local board of equalizers and appraisers in Cleveland which existed prior to the creation of the state board. The Cleveland board had power to appraise and equalize, hence Tom Johnson's citation in this connection is not germane. And besides, the law providing for the Cleveland board has long been repealed. If the tax laws are lax the blame cannot be laid on the board. It has done its duty and the people should be satisfied, and with Colonel Watson say: "Whoever hopes a faultless tax to see Hopes what ne'er was, nor is, nor ne'er shall be."

Statistics compiled in the office of the secretary of state for the past year present some interesting totals. The deaths for the year numbered 38,756, of which 1,995 were from violent causes and 38 from starvation. The deaths in Columbiana county number 553, 49 of these being recorded as occurring from violent causes. Of this number 36 were males and 13 females. The births exceed by nearly two to one the deaths, and are as follows: Males, 507; females, 509; total, 1,016. Two hundred and fifty-six couples were married and 80 persons were naturalized. Four lads were sent to the Boys' Industrial Home at Lancaster and one girl to the Girls' Industrial Home at Delaware. Thirty-six were committed to hospitals for the insane and epileptics. These statistics are for the year ending March 31, 1901.

It appears that campaign contributions do not come in thick and fast at Prohibition headquarters. The arrival of a small donation from an East Liverpool sympathizer of the cold water brigade puts Brother Ashenbush with high glee and moves him to express himself thus in the Cornerstone, the mouthpiece of the party: "If we had about 500 Prohibitionists like William Fisher, of East Liverpool, we could soon accomplish something substantial in Ohio. He saw in the Cornerstone last week that the committee needed money, and he promptly sent in $5 with the encouragement that there was more to follow."

Randolph Walton, correspondence clerk in the governor's office, the young man who spoke in East Liverpool and Lisbon in the Republican campaign a year ago, has been invited to make four speeches in Washington county. He was accepted. He was there in the last campaign. Mr. Walton married a Steubenville lady not long ago.

TELEPHONE FRANCHISE

GRANTED BY THE TOWN COUNCIL OF CHESTER.

Policeman May Be Dropped—Discussion of Bridge Gas Line.

Chester council met last night and gave the franchise of the Columbiana County company another reading. This time it was passed, but council had added onto it that the town was to have two free phones at present, and as the town grows and requires them the company will place in more.

The piece of cell which has been the cause of delaying the work of erecting the cells is expected to arrive in a few days, the recorder having received the bill of lading.

The insurance for the town building was accepted, the amount being $500.

The question whether the services of E. S. Goode as policeman were needed was discussed. Mr. Riley, president of the police committee, stated that he thought it was unnecessary to employ Mr. Goode at present, but in case his services were needed it was a case of after consideration, and in all probability he will be laid off.

A motion was made by Mr. Cochran to have the Ohio Valley Gas company place its line under the Second street bridge instead of on the bridge. Mr. Riley seconded the motion and Mr. Cochran was notified to inform the company to place the line under the bridge.

It has already connected the line over it, but as the ordinance calls for the line to be under cover, it is thought council will have no difficulty in getting the line placed as desired.

The grades of the engineer, which were viewed by council last Monday afternoon, were satisfactory and accepted.

M'KINLEY MEMORIAL

Opportunity Opened For the Public to Give Contributions to the Fund.

THE TRUSTEES SELECTED DAY

For President of the Association.
Plan Is to Erect a Memorial in Canton—Then if Money Is Left Over to Aid One For Washington.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11.—At the conclusion of a meeting of the trustees of the McKinley National Memorial association, held at Senator Hanna's office here, a statement was issued to the public, saying in part:

"The trustees, having qualified, proceeded to the election of officers, choosing as president Hon. William R. Day, Canton, O.; vice president, Hon. Marcus A. Hanna, Cleveland; treasurer, Colonel Myron T. Herrick, Cleveland; secretary, Ryerson Ritchie, Cleveland.

"The purposes of the association, as defined in its certificate of incorporation, are the erection and maintenance at Canton, O., of a suitable memorial to the late president and raising the necessary funds for said purposes; and, after fully providing therefor, the surplus of such funds, if any, to be devoted to such memorial as may be provided for the late president of the national capital. The memorial will be erected at Canton, that city having been his home throughout his public life and selected by him as his final resting place.

Expression of Love For McKinley.
"The memorial is to be, in the highest sense, the sincere expression of all the people of the country of their love for President McKinley and of their admiration for the qualities expressed so eminently in his life and deeds.

"The co-operation of the governors and officers of the states and municipalities of the United States, and all religious, educational, civic, patriotic, fraternal, benevolent, and other organizations is cordially invited.

"All public officials, organized bodies and the press are requested to take immediate steps to secure, at the earliest possible time, a full response to this appeal.

"Monies may be deposited in banks and other financial institutions, with telegraph, telephone and express offices, and with postmasters, who are requested to receive and transmit them to the treasurer promptly.

"The trustees of the association will receive subscriptions. Subscriptions abroad may be received by the ambassadors, ministers and consuls of the United States, and in Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippine islands by the respective governors thereof, or of persons authorized by them. Remittances may be made directly to Colonel Myron T. Herrick, treasurer, Cleveland, O.

"The association will prepare and distribute to all donors to the fund a souvenir certificate, which will be worthy of preservation, as evidence of the holder's participation in the work. The name and postoffice address of each contributor should be forwarded to the treasurer of the association, with the fund remitted, for preservation in the permanent archives of the association.

Liberal Response Hoped For.

The president of the United States and governors of all states and territories were unanimously elected honorary members of the association.

M'LEAN'S SCHEME.

What Lewie Bernard Did to the Convention Was a Plenty.

Isn't there more or less humbug, after all, in the pretense that John R. McLean is entirely out of the Ohio Democratic campaign? He may be out of it so far as Kilbourne is concerned, and yet be watching for his own welfare.

If McLean has no purpose of operating upon the Democrats in the legislature, should that party happen to have control, what is the explanation of the authority assumed by his man, Lewis Bernard, in bossing the whole business with the Hamilton county Democrats?

Why did Bernard take the trouble to pick out the 360 delegates for the Hamilton county convention, and to make the slate they selected under his direction for county officers, and particularly for the three Senators and ten Representatives?

That delegation, if it should be Democratic, may decide whether the legislature itself will be Democratic, and would by virtue of that, control the Democratic side in the Senate and House.

To be sure, the convention at Cincinnati went through the motions of endorsing C. W. Baker for United States Senator, but that can easily be got rid of if other circumstances are found to be favorable. The way to defeat Boss McLean is to make the legislature so strongly Republican in both houses that the Hamilton county result cannot change it.

WAR VETERANS.

Efforts of Democratic Committee to Corral Their Votes.

The Folly of This Attempt In Face of a Second Circular Which Claims Kilbourne Was Always a Democrat.

What a great parade and mockery is being made by the Democratic state committee over the fact that, after many years, they have consented to permit a Union soldier to head their state ticket! From the fuss that they are making over the fact that their candidate for governor this year fought for his country, one would suppose that such a leader was a rare thing with them; and so he is. In fact, they are so surprised to find themselves in such company that they act as if the mere announcement that their candidate actually was a soldier would be such a surprise to the soldiers of the state as to draw them to his support, whether or no.

This is the meaning of the flood of circulars that they are sowing broadcast among the veterans of Ohio, beseeching them to vote for Kilbourne, right or wrong, forgetful of the fact that George K. Nash was a soldier too, and just as good. His rank was not as high in those days, but then there are more men without commissions than of those who wore the shoulder straps, so that is no handicap.

But what the soldiers will want to know about James Kilbourne, whether he shall be called captain or colonel, whether he shall be known by his actual rank or his brevet, is whether he ever did anything himself for other soldiers when they were candidates for office. The Ohio Republican ticket has always had plenty of soldiers among its number, and has always been headed by a soldier, except when Governor Foster was the candidate. There have been soldier candidates without number for all the local offices, but did Candidate Kilbourne ever help any of them? If he didn't, what claim has he upon any of them, or upon their comrades?

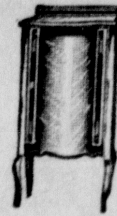

Of course, we will admit that he supported soldiers who happened to be on the Democratic ticket, for we have it upon the authority of his own campaign committee, in another of their circulars which they are sending abroad, with equal generosity but to another set of people, that he has always supported the Democratic party and candidates. Since that is so, Republican soldiers, who never received anything from him for the party of Grant and Hayes and Garfield and McKinley, have no occasion to disturb themselves in Mr. Kilbourne's behalf at this time, either as soldiers or citizens. He has been a strict party man all these years; now let him depend upon his strict party associates to elect him if they can.

"HOME RULE" TRIED.

How It Works in Cleveland Under the "Reform" Mayor, Tom Johnson.

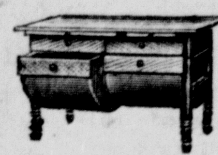

Home rule, yes. They have it in Cleveland, have it to the full; and as the result is that the Tom Johnson city administration run by the man that got up the home rule declaration in the Ohio Democratic platform, has paid out in the few months of its existence $100,000 of the city money without warrant of law, largely for the purpose of schemes beneficial to Mr. Johnson politically, although ostensibly for the good of the taxpayer. One instance is in Johnson's man Bemis, imported from Kansas to do work that Johnson pretended he was going to pay for himself; but it now appears that Bemis has had in five months $4,000 from the city. Besides this, he has just been given a city job, although not a citizen of Ohio nor even a resident here, at $3,500 a year, ousting a well proved public officer, who has been retained by all administrations for many years because of his efficiency. Since Mr. Johnson has forced himself into the Ohio campaign, Ohio voters will need to keep tab on his performances.

MCKINLEY MEMORIAL

Opportunity Opened For the Public to Give Contributions to the Fund.

THE TRUSTEES SELECTED DAY

For President of the Association.
Plan is to Erect a Memorial in Canton—Then if Money is Left Over to Aid One For Washington.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11.—At the conclusion of a meeting of the trustees of the McKinley National Memorial association, held at Senator Hanna's office here, a statement was issued to the public, saying in part:

"The trustees, having qualified, proceeded to the election of officers, choosing as president Hon. William R. Day, Canton, O.; vice president,
Hon. Marcus A. Hanna, Cleveland;
treasurer, Colonel Myron T. Herrick, Cleveland; secretary, Ryerson Ritchie, Cleveland.

"The purposes of the association,
as defined in its certificate of incorporation, are the erection and maintenance at Canton, O., of a suitable memorial to the late president and raising the necessary funds for said purposes; and, after fully providing therefor, the surplus of such funds, if any, to be devoted to such memorial as may be provided for the late president of the national capitol.

The memorial will be erected at Canton, that city having been his home throughout his public life and selected by him as his final resting place.
Expression of Love For McKinley.

"The memorial is to be, in the highest sense, the sincere expression of all the people of the country of their love for President McKinley and of their admiration for the qualities expressed so eminently in his life and deeds.

"The co-operation of the governors and officers of the states and municipalities of the United States, and all religious, educational, civic, patriotic, fraternal, benevolent and other organizations is cordially invited.

"All public officials, organized bodies and the press are requested to take immediate steps to secure, at the earliest possible time, a full response to this appeal.

"Monies may be deposited in banks and other financial institutions, with telegram, telephone and express offices, and with postmasters, who are requested to receive and transmit them to the treasurer promptly.

"The trustees of the association will receive subscriptions. Subscriptions abroad may be received by the ambassadors, ministers and consuls of the United States, and in Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippine islands by the respective governors thereof, or of persons authorized by them. Remittances may be made directly to Colonel Myron T. Herrick, treasurer, Cleveland, O.

"The association will prepare and distribute to all donors to the fund
a souvenir certificate, which will be worthy of preservation, as evidence of the holder's participation in the work. The name and postoffice address of each contributor should be forwarded to the treasurer of the association, with the fund remitted, for preservation in the permanent archives of the association.

Liberal Response Hoped For.

"It is hoped that the response of the people will be so liberal that a memorial may be erected which will fittingly honor the memory of our martyred president, and emphasize their loyalty to our institutions and their abhorrence of that spirit of lawlessness which inspired the assault upon his life."

The president of the United States and governors of all states and territories were unanimously elected honorary members of the association.

M'LEAN'S SCHEME.

What Lewis Bernard Did to the Convention Was a Plenty.

Isn't there more or less humbug,
after all, in the pretense that John R.
McLean is entirely out of the Ohio Democratic campaign? He may be out of it so far as Kilbourne is concerned, and yet be watching for his own well-fare.

If McLean has no purpose of operating upon the Democrats in the legislature, should that party happen to have control, what is the explanation of the authority assumed by his man, Lewis Bernard, in bossing the whole business with the Hamilton county Democrats?

Why did Bernard take the trouble to pick out the 350 delegates for the Hamilton county convention, and to make the slate they selected under his direction for county officers, and particularly for the three Senators and ten Representatives?

That delegation, if it should be Democratic, may decide whether the legislature itself will be Democratic, and would by virtue of that, control the Democratic side in the Senate and House.

To be sure, the convention at Cincinnati went through the motions of endorsing C. W. Baker for United States Senator, but that can easily be got rid of if other circumstances are found to be favorable. The way to defeat Boss McLean is to make the legislature so strongly Republican in both houses that the Hamilton county result cannot change it.

WAR VETERANS.

Efforts of Democratic Committee to Corral Their Votes.

The Folly of This Attempt in Face of a Second Circular Which Claims Kilbourne Was Always a Democrat.

What a great parade and mockery is being made by the Democratic state committee over the fact that,
after many years, they have consented to permit a Union soldier to head their state ticket! From the fuss that they are making over the fact that their candidate for governor this year fought for his country, one would suppose that such a leader was a rare thing with them; and so he is. In fact, they are so surprised to find themselves in such company that they act as if the mere announcement that their candidate actually was a soldier would be such a surprise to the soldiers of the state as to draw them to his support, whether or no.

This is the meaning of the flood of circulars that they are sowing broadcast among the veterans of Ohio, be-seeming them to vote for Kilbourne, right or wrong, forgetful of the fact that George K. Nash was a soldier too, and just as good. His rank was not as high in those days, but then there are more men without commissions than of those who wore the shoulder straps, so that is no handicap.

But what the soldiers will want to know about James Kilbourne, whether he shall be called captain or colonel, whether he shall be known by his actual rank or his brevet, is whether he ever did anything himself for other soldiers when they were candidates for office. The Ohio Republican ticket has always had plenty of soldiers among its number, and has always been headed by a soldier, except when Governor Foster was the candidate. There have been soldier candidates without number for all the local offices, but did Candidate Kilbourne ever help any of them? If he didn't, what claim has he upon any of them, or upon their comrades?

Of course, we will admit that he supported soldiers who happened to be on the Democratic ticket, for we have it upon the authority of his own campaign committee, in another of their circulars which they are sending abroad, with equal generosity but to another set of people, that he has always supported the Democratic party and candidates. Since that is so, Republican soldiers, who never received anything from him for the party of Grant and Hayes and Garfield and McKinley, have no occasion to disturb themselves in Mr. Kilbourne's behalf at this time, either as soldiers or citizens. He has been a strict party man all these years; now let him depend upon his strict party associates to elect him if they can.

"HOME RULE" TRIED.

How It Works in Cleveland Under the "Reform" Mayor, Tom Johnson.

Home rule, yes. They have it in Cleveland, have it to the full; and as the result is that the Tom Johnson city administration run by the man that got up the home rule declaration in the Ohio Democratic platform, has paid out in the few months of its existence $100,000 of the city money without warrant of law, largely for the purpose of schemes beneficial to Mr. Johnson politically, although ostensibly for the good of the taxpayer.
One instance is in Johnson's man Bemis, imported from Kansas to do work that Johnson pretended he was going to pay for himself; but it now appears that Bemis has had in five months $4,000 from the city. Besides this, he has just been given a city job, although not a citizen of Ohio nor even a resident here, at $3,500 a year, ousting a well proved public officer,
who has been retained by all administrations for many years because of his efficiency. Since Mr. Johnson has forced himself into the Ohio campaign, Ohio voters will need to keep tab on his performances.

While on a visit to the property, a second stranger was met, who induced Hueston and his companion to go into a card game, the outcome of which was the transfer of Hueston's money, which had been drawn from a bank, to a grip which the second stranger carried and his subsequent departure with it, Hueston not suspecting the trick, believing that the money had been given to him in a smaller grip, which contained only green paper.

BLESSED SACRAMENT

ADMINISTERED BY BISHOP WALDEN AT M. E. CONFERENCE.

Urged Methodists to Take It as Eucharist, Sacrament and Communion—Some Proceedings.

Beaver Falls, Pa., Oct. 11.—When the second day's session of the Pittsburgh conference of the Methodist Episcopal church convened Thursday morning the devotional services were conducted by Dr. A. C. Johnson, of Butler. The session of the conference opened at 9 a. m., with Bishop J. M. Walden presiding. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by the bishop. He called to assist him Dr. J. E. Knox, of the Allegheny district; Dr. Turner, of Blairsville district; Dr. Woodring, of Pittsburgh; the Rev. B. T. Beazell, of Blairsville. The bishop made an eloquent address, in which he urged that the sacrament of the Lord's Supper be observed by Methodists, first, as a eucharist; second, as a sacrament, and third, as a communion.

WATCH DOGS

Ever on the Alert—Alive to Every Form of Oppression—Kept on Edge—Burdened Beyond Endurance—Nerves Give Out.

The machinery of a mill that grinds day and night has to shut down now and then for repairs. It is the same way with your nerves. Overwork, close application, our ways of living, brings about nerve waste that sets up symptoms of various kinds. It may be failing strength, weakness, languor, headache, sleeplessness, etc. Whatever it is nerve force is lacking, and the means of restoring rests with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. A great many people in East Liverpool vouch for this. Among them is Mr. James Pepin of 302 Third street, East Liverpool, O., who says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, Cor. Sixth and East Market street, are a fine nerve tonic. As a result of hard work I was generally debilitated, nervous and could not sleep. I needed rebuilding and found in the nerve pills the medicine needed. They have the power to steady and strengthen the nerves, give restful sleep and general vigor to the system at large."

The conference Thursday morning was well attended, a number of women being present. Thirty members who did not respond to roll call on Wednesday were present Thursday morning. Bishop Walden introduced to the conference the Rev. B. H. Gardner, of the Presbyterian church of Freedom; the Rev. J. T. Hackett, of the Presbyterian church of Monaca; Dr. W. L. Dixon, of the Pittsburg Advocate.

The matter of church insurance was taken up, and the bishop stated that it was an important matter, as the general conference had given it its recognition. The following committees were appointed on the matter: H. C. Beacom, of Allegheny district; A. J. Ash, of Blairsville district; J. M. Menden, of McKeesport district; G. E. Hite, of Pittsburgh district; Dr. J. L. Murray, of Washington district. The reports of the districts were taken up. The bishop made a few remarks, in which he asked that in making their reports the elders would state whether or not the Epworth League was a help to the church, saying that some ministers had complained that the leagues would hold their meetings on Sunday evenings and then trot off some place else instead of attending church. Other ministers had reported that the leagues were a great help to the church.

Report on Blairsville District.

Dr. F. P. Turner, presiding elder of the Blairsville district, was first called and made his report. He spoke of the deaths that had occurred during the year, of the financial affairs, and said the spiritual condition is excellent. He said the Epworth leagues were doing great work and have great promise for the future. Dr. J. A. Ballantyne, presiding elder of the McKeesport district, said that the Epworth leagues and Junior leagues were doing excellent work in some places, but in others he feared they were not. Dr. T. N. Boyle, of the Pittsburg district, and James Mechem, of the Washington district, also made reports, and conference adjourned for the day.

While on a visit to the property, a second stranger was met, who induced Hueston and his companion to go into a card game, the outcome of which was the transfer of Hueston's money, which had been drawn from a bank, to a grip which the second stranger carried and his subsequent departure with it, Hueston not suspecting the trick, believing that the money had been given to him in a smaller grip, which contained only green paper.

Beaver Falls, Pa., Oct. 11.—When the second day's session of the Pittsburg conference of the Methodist Episcopal church convened Thursday morning the devotional services were conducted by Dr. A. C. Johnson, of Butler. The session of the conference opened at 9 a. m., with Bishop J. M. Walden presiding. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by the bishop. He called to assist him Dr. J. E. Knox, of the Allegheny district; Dr. Turner, of Blairsville district; Dr. Woodring, of Pittsburg; the Rev. B. T. Beazell, of Blairsville. The bishop made an eloquent address, in which he urged that the sacrament of the Lord's Supper be observed by Methodists, first, as a eucharist; second, as a sacrament, and third, as a communion.

The machinery of a mill that grinds day and night has to shut down now and then for repairs. It is the same way with your nerves. Overwork, close application, our ways of living, brings about nerve waste that sets up symptoms of various kinds. It may be failing strength, weakness, languor, headache, sleeplessness, etc. Whatever it is nerve force is lacking, and the means of restoring rests with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. A great many people in East Liverpool vouch for this. Among them is Mr. James Pepin of 302 Third street, East Liverpool, O., who says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, Cor. Sixth and East Market street, are a fine nerve tonic. As a result of hard work I was generally debilitated, nervous and could not sleep. I needed rebuilding and found in the nerve pills the medicine needed. They have the power to steady and strengthen the nerves, give restful sleep and general vigor to the system at large."

a number arrived in town Thursday morning and were shown to the houses arranged for them.

The conference Thursday morning was well attended, a number of women being present. Thirty members who did not respond to roll call on Wednesday were present Thursday morning. Bishop Walden introduced to the conference the Rev. B. H. Gardner, of the Presbyterian church of Freedom; the Rev. J. T. Hackett, of the Presbyterian church of Monaca; Dr. W. L. Dixon, of the Pittsburg Advocate.

The matter of church insurance was taken up, and the bishop stated that it was an important matter, as the general conference had given it its recognition. The following committees were appointed on the matter: H. C. Beacom, of Allegheny district; A. J. Ash, of Blairsville district; J. M. Menden, of McKeesport district; G. E. Hite, of Pittsburg district; Dr. J. L. Murray, of Washington district. The reports of the districts were taken up. The bishop made a few remarks, in which he asked that in making their reports the elders would state whether or not the Epworth League was a help to the church, saying that some ministers had complained that the leagues would hold their meetings on Sunday evenings and then trot off some place else instead of attending church. Other ministers had reported that the leagues were a great help to the church.

Report on Blairsville District.
Dr. F. P. Turner, presiding elder of the Blairsville district, was first called and made his report. He spoke of the deaths that had occurred during the year, of the financial affairs, and said the spiritual condition is excellent. He said the Epworth leagues were doing great work and have great promise for the future. Dr. J. A. Ballantyne, presiding elder of the McKeesport district, said that the Epworth leagues and Junior leagues were doing excellent work in some places, but in others he feared they were not. Dr. T. N. Boyle, of the Pittsburg district, and James Mechem, of the Washington district, also made reports, and conference adjourned for the day.

M'KINLEY MEMORIAL

Opportunity Opened For the Public to Give Contributions to the Fund.

THE TRUSTEES SELECTED DAY

For President of the Association.
Plan is to Erect a Memorial in Canton—Then if Money is Left Over to Aid One For Washington.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11.—At the conclusion of a meeting of the trustees of the McKinley National Memorial association, held at Senator Hanna's office here, a statement was issued to the public, saying in part:

"The trustees, having qualified, proceeded to the election of officers, choosing as president Hon. William R. Day, Canton, O.; vice president, Hon. Marcus A. Hanna, Cleveland; treasurer, Colonel Myron T. Herrick, Cleveland; secretary, Ryerson Ritchie, Cleveland."

"The purposes of the association, as defined in its certificate of incorporation, are the erection and maintenance at Canton, O., of a suitable memorial to the late president and raising the necessary funds for said purposes; and, after fully providing therefor, the surplus of such funds, if any, to be devoted to such memorial as may be provided for the late president of the national capital. The memorial will be erected at Canton, that city having been his home throughout his public life and selected by him as his final resting place."

Expression of Love For McKinley.
"The memorial is to be, in the highest sense, the sincere expression of all the people of the country of their love for President McKinley and of their admiration for the qualities expressed so eminently in his life and deeds."

"The co-operation of the governors and officers of the states and municipalities of the United States, and all religious, educational, civic, patriotic, fraternal, benevolent and other organizations is cordially invited."

"All public officials, organized bodies and the press are requested to take immediate steps to secure, at the earliest possible time, a full response to this appeal."

"The trustees of the association will receive subscriptions. Subscriptions abroad may be received by the ambassadors, ministers and consuls of the United States, and in Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippine Islands by the respective governors thereof, or of persons authorized by them. Remittances may be made directly to Colonel Myron T. Herrick, treasurer, Cleveland, O."

"The association will prepare and distribute to all donors to the fund a souvenir certificate, which will be worthy of preservation, as evidence of the holder's participation in the work. The name and postoffice address of each contributor should be forwarded to the treasurer of the association, with the fund remitted, for preservation in the permanent archives of the association."

Liberal Response Hoped For.

The president of the United States and governors of all states and territories were unanimously elected honorary members of the association.

M'LEAN'S SCHEME.

What Lewie Bernard Did to the Convention Was a Plenty.

Isn't there more or less humbug, after all, in the pretense that John R. McLean is entirely out of the Ohio Democratic campaign? He may be out of it so far as Kilbourne is concerned, and yet be watching for his own welfare.

If McLean has no purpose of operating upon the Democrats in the legislature, should that party happen to have control, what is the explanation of the authority assumed by his man, Lewis Bernard, in bossing the whole business with the Hamilton county Democrats?

Why did Bernard take the trouble to pick out the 360 delegates for the Hamilton county convention, and to make the slate they selected under his direction for county officers, and particularly for the three Senators and ten Representatives?

That delegation, if it should be Democratic, may decide whether the legislature itself will be Democratic, and would by virtue of that, control the Democratic side in the Senate and House.

To be sure, the convention at Cincinnati went through the motions of endorsing C. W. Baker for United States Senator, but that can easily be got rid of if other circumstances are found to be favorable. The way to defeat Boss McLean is to make the legislature so strongly Republican in both houses that the Hamilton county result cannot change it.

WAR VETERANS.

Efforts of Democratic Committee to Corral Their Votes.

The Folly of This Attempt in Face of a Second Circular Which Claims Kilbourne Was Always a Democrat.

What a great parade and mockery is being made by the Democratic state committee over the fact that, after many years, they have consented to permit a Union soldier to head their state ticket! From the fuss that they are making over the fact that their candidate for governor this year fought for his country, one would suppose that such a leader was a rare thing with them; and so he is. In fact, they are so surprised to find themselves in such company that they act as if the mere announcement that their candidate actually was a soldier would be such a surprise to the soldiers of the state as to draw them to his support, whether or no.

This is the meaning of the flood of circulars that they are sowing broadcast among the veterans of Ohio, beseeching them to vote for Kilbourne, right or wrong, forgetful of the fact that George K. Nash was a soldier too, and just as good. His rank was not as high in those days, but then there are more men without commissions than of those who wore the shoulder straps, so that is no handicap.

But what the soldiers will want to know about James Kilbourne, whether he shall be called captain or colonel, whether he shall be known by his actual rank or his brevet, is whether he ever did anything himself for other soldiers when they were candidates for office. The Ohio Republican ticket has always had plenty of soldiers among its number, and has always been headed by a soldier, except when Governor Foster was the candidate. There have been soldier candidates without number for all the local offices, but did Candidate Kilbourne ever help any of them? If he didn't, what claim has he upon any of them, or upon their comrades?

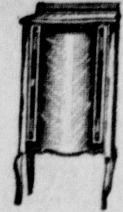

Of course, we will admit that he supported soldiers who happened to be on the Democratic ticket, for we have it upon the authority of his own campaign committee, in another of their circulars which they are sending abroad, with equal generosity but to another set of people, that he has always supported the Democratic party and candidates. Since that is so, Republican soldiers, who never received anything from him for the party of Grant and Hayes and Garfield and McKinley, have no occasion to disturb themselves in Mr. Kilbourne's behalf at this time, either as soldiers or citizens. He has been a strict party man all these years; now let him depend upon his strict party associates to elect him if they can.

"HOME RULE" TRIED.

How It Works in Cleveland Under the "Reform" Mayor, Tom Johnson.

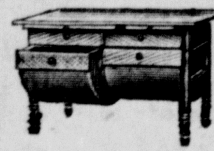

Home rule, yes. They have it in Cleveland, have it to the full; and as the result is that the Tom Johnson city administration run by the man that got up the home rule declaration in the Ohio Democratic platform, has paid out in the few months of its existence $100,000 of the city money without warrant of law, largely for the purpose of schemes beneficial to Mr. Johnson politically, although ostensibly for the good of the taxpayer. One instance is in Johnson's man Bemis, imported from Kansas to do work that Johnson pretended he was going to pay for himself; but it now appears that Bemis has had in five months $4,000 from the city. Besides this, he has just been given a city job, although not a citizen of Ohio nor even a resident here, at $3,500 a year, ousting a well proved public officer, who has been retained by all administrations for many years because of his efficiency. Since Mr. Johnson has forced himself into the Ohio campaign, Ohio voters will need to keep tab on his performances.

Veterans of the war know how Kilbourne got his title.

Opportunity Opened For the Public to Give Contributions to the Fund.

THE TRUSTEES SELECTED DAY

For President of the Association.
Plan is to Erect a Memorial in Canton—Then if Money is Left Over to Aid One For Washington.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11.—At the conclusion of a meeting of the trustees of the McKinley National Memorial association, held at Senator Hanna's office here, a statement was issued to the public, saying in part:

"The trustees, having qualified, proceeded to the election of officers, choosing as president Hon. William R. Day, Canton, O.; vice president, Hon. Marcus A. Hanna, Cleveland; treasurer, Colonel Myron T. Herrick, Cleveland; secretary, Myerson Ritchie, Cleveland.

"The purposes of the association, as defined in its certificate of incorporation, are the erection and maintenance at Canton, O., of a suitable memorial to the late president and raising the necessary funds for said purposes; and, after fully providing therefor, the surplus of such funds, if any, to be devoted to such memorial as may be provided for the late president of the national capital. The memorial will be erected at Canton, that city having been his home throughout his public life and selected by him as his final resting place.

Expression of Love For McKinley.
"The memorial is to be, in the highest sense, the sincere expression of all the people of the country of their love for President McKinley and of their admiration for the qualities expressed so eminently in his life and deeds.

"The co-operation of the governors and officers of the states and municipalities of the United States, and all religious, educational, civic, patriotic, fraternal, benevolent and other organizations is cordially invited.

"All public officials, organized bodies and the press are requested to take immediate steps to secure, at the earliest possible time, a full response to this appeal.

"Monies may be deposited in banks and other financial institutions, with telegraph, telephone and express offices, and with postmasters, who are requested to receive and transmit them to the treasurer promptly.

"The trustees of the association will receive subscriptions. Subscriptions abroad may be received by the ambassadors, ministers and consuls of the United States, and in Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippine islands by the respective governors thereof, or of persons authorized by them. Remittances may be made directly to Colonel Myron T. Herrick, treasurer, Cleveland, O.

"The association will prepare and distribute to all donors to the fund a souvenir certificate, which will be worthy of preservation, as evidence of the holder's participation in the work. The name and postoffice address of each contributor should be forwarded to the treasurer of the association, with the fund remitted, for preservation in the permanent archives of the association.

Liberal Response Hoped For.

The president of the United States and governors of all states and territories were unanimously elected honorary members of the association.

BLESSED SACRAMENT

ADMINISTERED BY BISHOP WALDEN AT M. E. CONFERENCE.

Urged Methodists to Take It as Eucharist, Sacrament and Communion—Some Proceedings.

Beaver Falls, Pa., Oct. 11.—When the second day's session of the Pittsburgh conference of the Methodist Episcopal church convened Thursday morning the devotional services were conducted by Dr. A. C. Johnson, of Butler. The session of the conference opened at 9 a. m., with Bishop J. M. Walden presiding. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by the bishop. He called to assist him Dr. J. E. Knox, of the Allegheny district; Dr. Turner, of Blairsville district; Dr. Woodring, of Pittsburgh; the Rev. B. T. Beazell, of Blairsville. The bishop made an eloquent address, in which he urged that the sacrament of the Lord's Supper be observed by Methodists, first, as a eucharist; second, as a sacrament, and third, as a communion.

WATCH DOGS

The machinery of a mill that grinds day and night has to shut down now and then for repairs. It is the same way with your nerves. Overwork, close application, our ways of living, brings about nerve waste that sets up symptoms of various kinds. It may be failing strength, weakness, languor, headache, sleeplessness, etc. Whatever it is nerve force is lacking, and the means of restoring rests with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. A great many people in East Liverpool vouch for this. Among them is Mr. James Pepin of 302 Third street, East Liverpool, O., who says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, Cor. Sixth and East Market, street, are a fine nerve tonic. As a result of hard work I was generally debilitated, nervous and could not sleep. I needed rebuilding and found in the nerve pills the medicine needed. They have the power to steady and strengthen the nerves, give restful sleep and general vigor to the system at large."

a number arrived in town Thursday morning and were shown to the houses arranged for them.

The conference Thursday morning was well attended, a number of women being present. Thirty members who did not respond to roll call on Wednesday were present Thursday morning. Bishop Walden introduced to the conference the Rev. B. H. Gardiner, of the Presbyterian church of Freedom; the Rev. J. T. Hackett, of the Presbyterian church of Monaca; Dr. W. L. Dixon, of the Pittsburg Advocate.

The matter of church insurance was taken up, and the bishop stated that it was an important matter, as the general conference had given it its recognition. The following committees were appointed on the matter: H. C. Beacom, of Allegheny district; A. J. Ash, of Blairsville district; J. M. Menden, of McKeesport district; G. E. Hite, of Pittsburg district; Dr. J. L. Murray, of Washington district. The reports of the districts were taken up. The bishop made a few remarks, in which he asked that in making their reports the elders would state whether or not the Epworth League was a help to the church, saying that some ministers had complained that the leagues would hold their meetings on Sunday evenings and then trot off some place else instead of attending church. Other ministers had reported that the leagues were a great help to the church.

Report on Blairsville District.

Dr. F. P. Turner, presiding elder of the Blairsville district, was first called and made his report. He spoke of the deaths that had occurred during the year, of the financial affairs, and said the spiritual condition is excellent. He said the Epworth leagues were doing great work and have great promise for the future. Dr. J. A. Ballantyne, presiding elder of the McKeesport district, said that the Epworth leagues and Junior leagues were doing excellent work in some places, but in others he feared they were not. Dr. T. N. Boyle, of the Pittsburg district, and James Mechem, of the Washington district, also made reports, and conference adjourned for the day.

While on a visit to the property, a second stranger was met, who induced Hueston and his companion to go into a card game, the outcome of which was the transfer of Hueston's money, which had been drawn from a bank, to a grip which the second stranger carried and his subsequent departure with it, Hueston not suspecting the trick, believing that the money had been given to him in a smaller grip, which contained only green paper.

BLESSED SACRAMENT

ADMINISTERED BY BISHOP WALDEN AT M. E. CONFERENCE.

Urged Methodists to Take It as Eucharist, Sacrament and Communion—Some Proceedings.

Beaver Falls, Pa., Oct. 11.—When the second day's session of the Pittsburgh conference of the Methodist Episcopal church convened Thursday morning the devotional services were conducted by Dr. A. C. Johnson, of Butler. The session of the conference opened at 9 a. m., with Bishop J. M. Walden presiding. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by the bishop. He called to assist him Dr. J. E. Knox, of the Allegheny district; Dr. Turner, of Blairsville district; Dr. Woodring, of Pittsburgh; the Rev. B. T. Beazell, of Blairsville. The bishop made an eloquent address, in which he urged that the sacrament of the Lord's Supper be observed by Methodists, first, as a eucharist; second, as a sacrament, and third, as a communion.

The machinery of a mill that grinds day and night has to shut down now and then for repairs. It is the same way with your nerves. Overwork, close application, our ways of living, brings about nerve waste that sets up symptoms of various kinds. It may be failing strength, weakness, languor, headache, sleeplessness, etc. Whatever it is nerve force is lacking, and the means of restoring rests with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. A great many people in East Liverpool vouch for this. Among them is Mr. James Pepin of 302 Third street, East Liverpool, O., who says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, Cor. Sixth and East Market, street, are a fine nerve tonic. As a result of hard work I was generally debilitated, nervous and could not sleep. I needed rebuilding and found in the nerve pills the medicine needed. They have the power to steady and strengthen the nerves, give restful sleep and general vigor to the system at large."

a number arrived in town Thursday morning and were shown to the houses arranged for them.

The conference Thursday morning was well attended, a number of women being present. Thirty members who did not respond to roll call on Wednesday were present Thursday morning. Bishop Walden introduced to the conference the Rev. B. H. Gardner, of the Presbyterian church of Freedom; the Rev. J. T. Hackett, of the Presbyterian church of Monaca; Dr. W. L. Dixon, of the Pittsburg Advocate.

The matter of church insurance was taken up, and the bishop stated that it was an important matter, as the general conference had given it its recognition. The following committees were appointed on the matter: H. C. Beacom, of Allegheny district; A. J. Ash, of Blairsville district; J. M. Menden, of McKeesport district; G. E. Hite, of Pittsburg district; Dr. J. L. Murray, of Washington district. The reports of the districts were taken up. The bishop made a few remarks, in which he asked that in making their reports the elders would state whether or not the Epworth League was a help to the church, saying that some ministers had complained that the leagues would hold their meetings on Sunday evenings and then trot off some place else instead of attending church. Other ministers had reported that the leagues were a great help to the church.

Report on Blairsville District.

Dr. F. P. Turner, presiding elder of the Blairsville district, was first called and made his report. He spoke of the deaths that had occurred during the year, of the financial affairs, and said the spiritual condition is excellent. He said the Epworth leagues were doing great work and have great promise for the future. Dr. J. A. Ballantyne, presiding elder of the McKeesport district, said that the Epworth leagues and Junior leagues were doing excellent work in some places, but in others he feared they were not. Dr. T. N. Boyle, of the Pittsburg district, and James Mechem, of the Washington district, also made reports, and conference adjourned for the day.

rendered in favor of the plaintiff. Buxton sued to recover possession of a dwelling in the East End occupied by Wallace.

Lecture Course Arranged—The arrangements for the high school lecture course have been completed. There will be eight entertainments in the course, five of them musical. Prominent musical organizations will take part. Two United States senators will deliver lectures.

His Case Hopeless—John Wheeler, of the West End, who was taken to Pittsburg yesterday in the hope that he might be benefited by an operation at one of the hospitals, was brought home on the evening train last night.
The hospital physicians decided that his case was hopeless and an operation would be of no use. Mr. Wheeler is suffering from an abscess. He was foreman at the bench at Harker's pottery, but has been unable to do any work since Feb. 17.

Chief Thompson Receives a Letter of Inquiry Concerning William Race.

Chief Thompson received a letter
this morning dated at Vina, Cal., and signed by J. L. Race, requesting him to furnish information concerning the present whereabouts of William Race, who is a brother of the writer. The two have not seen each other for 35 years.

William Race was a former resident of this city, but is at present serving a term in the Canton workhouse.
He was sent there a few months ago
by Mayor Davidson to work out a fine of $50 and costs for the commission of an act of lewdness on a public street. His time will soon expire and his brother's letter will be forwarded to him.

We will have extra clerks on Saturday to wait on you. If we couldn't wait on you last Saturday we apologize to you and ask you to come again.

VALIANT WORK

DONE BY Y. M. C. A. LADIES' AUX-ILIARY MEMBERS.

The Reds Won in the Interesting Membership Contest Just Closed.

The Ladies' Auxiliary membership contest of the Y. M. C. A. has closed and victory perches on the red banner. Each side did valiant work, as the returns will show.

According to the rule of the contest each dollar counted a point, whether back dues, renewal of membership, new member or subscription. The purpose of this was to give the ladies
an opportunity to bring in some back dues and subscriptions and have them counted.

Through some slight misunderstanding some of the ladies failed to grasp the idea that subscriptions would count and, as a matter of fact,
the collection of back dues and subscriptions were all by one side. The result, however, is not affected by this. If memberships only had counted the reds would still have won, as they brought in 130 memberships, while the blues brought in 129. The reds also secured $25 in back dues and $12 in subscriptions, so the totals are: Reds, 167; blues, 129.

The amount of money turned in was $296, subsequent subscriptions making it $300. While the money is important, it is not the most important, as an auxiliary member counts
more than an auxiliary membership fee. This amount is not turned into the general fund of the association, but belongs to the auxiliary and is expended by them.

The secretary believes that this association now possesses the most efficient ladies' auxiliary of any association in the country, and expects much benefit to social work of the association.

According to agreement the ladies on the blue side will entertain the reds next Thursday evening, Oct.
17th. The spread will probably be an oyster supper.

CLOTHING MAKES THE MAN

You don't believe it? Well try applying for a position in ragged attire, or call on a merchant with an advertising scheme, or wait upon a customer across the counter, in disfigured dress, and see how you'll be received—then try the same mission with neat clothing to back up your respectability. There is no excuse for any man being shabbily attired, for it cost so little to dress in becoming fashion now-a-days.

All of which are merely mentioned to remind you occasionally that Erlangers better than rivals, if possible—or the same grades a little cheaper.
